

ONE KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT

PRESIDENT SCORES HUERTA

Breaks Long Silence in Annual Message

'USURPER' IS TERM HE APPLIES

Government in Southern Republic Called 'Despotism'

Legislation Touched on Briefly in Address to Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—President Woodrow Wilson in his first annual message to Congress today put clearly before the people of the United States, and the rest of the world, his attitude toward the Huerta government in Mexico. The President read his document and its most forceful sentences were those directed at the Huerta regime. His expressions broke the silence he and Secretary Bryan have long maintained and which the world has been puzzling over.

President Wilson denounced Huerta as a usurper. He said there could be no peace in Mexico "until it was understood on all hands that such pretended governments will not be tolerated."

The President added that the government maintained in Mexico City had broken down and a "mere military despotism set up that has hardly more than a semblance of national authority."

President Wilson arrived at the capitol just before 1 o'clock to read in person his message to a joint session of Congress. He went at once to Speaker Clark's room.

IN JOINT SESSION.

The joint session and the reading of the message did not begin promptly at 1 o'clock as had been provided, because of the failure of the Senate to recess in time to get over to the House chamber. It was within one minute of 1 before the Senators were filing over to the other side of the capitol. Meanwhile the President waited in Speaker Clark's office, chatting with the reception committee and a few congressmen.

The galleries were packed with a brilliant company of officials, and their families greeted the President. When the joint session finally got down to business all present stood and a deafening roar of applause swept the chamber as President Wilson took his place behind the desk and began to read at 1:08 o'clock.

No program of the day's legislation was presented further than the mention of desirability of an early amendment to the Sherman law "to prevent private monopoly more effectively than it has yet been prevented" and an announcement that the President would later address a special message to Congress dealing solely with that subject.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

The President presented a suggestion that legislation be promptly enacted providing for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of several parties "may choose their nominees for the presidency without the intervention of nominating conventions." Party conventions, the President urged, should be retained, "but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the voters on the platform of the parties."

"I hope," the President said, "that it may not be deemed an impertinent

CALIFORNIA'S INHERITANCE

The Bard of Avon centuries ago uttered the magic watchword, "Westward, Ho!" Its echoes lingered in the halls of time.

They did not hesitate or count the cost. For he who waits when duty calls is lost. But leaving straight their flag and their vine, Became our Argonauts of forty-nine.

Ours now the message, and for us it means Labor and love in distant Philippines.

One Night Bars to Pay $35 License

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Instead of the $10 license fee that one-night bars have heretofore paid for the privilege of selling liquor at dances and other entertainments, they must hereafter pay $35—$10 to the city and $25, the full license for one year to the United States government.

Hitherto the requirements of the federal government have usually been met by the display of a license regularly taken out by some other liquor dealer. J. J. Scott, collector of internal revenue, announced his new ruling today, which will apply to Oakland, Sacramento and all the cities of the northern federal district.

In a statement Scott says: "I desire it distinctly understood by all societies and organizations, whatever their character, that in selling liquor at one-night dances or other entertainments they will become liable for the special tax imposed upon retail liquor dealers by the United States government."

"The government will not take cognizance of the fact that the liquor is sold only on the night of the dance or one day of the entertainment. Any organization or individual selling liquor at any time in the month of July will incur the full annual tax of $25, and when the liquor is sold in any month subsequent to July the tax will be computed according to the number of months remaining of the taxable year."

Aviator Makes First Trip as Line Scout

"Bob" Fowler, California aviator, carrying Line Patrolman R. F. Kito, this morning made the initial trip as line scout for the Great Western Power Company. Leaving Brighton at 8:44 o'clock this morning, Fowler with Kito drove his machine through a stiff wind to Big Ben, the Great Western power house eighteen miles above Groveville, arriving there at 10:30 o'clock. Descending along the line was reported as being in its right position. Fowler has signed a contract to appear as air line pilot for the Great Western interests for a thirty-day period. If at the end of that time the experiment proves a success he will probably receive a permanent contract. During the trip this morning a height of 1000 feet was kept almost the entire distance. As soon as any defect is seen in the wire the machine descends, the line man climbs aloft, hooks his portable telephone to the cable and advises the nearest office of the defect.

Fowler will attempt a flight tomorrow from Sacramento to this city and return to Sacramento.

Mrs. Oscar Luning To Receive Bequest

Mrs. Oscar Luning, wife of a well-known capitalist of San Francisco and Oakland, will receive a bequest of $3000 from the estate of her husband's aunt, the late Margaret O'Brien, according to her will, which was filed for probate today. The Luning home at 3555 Telegraph avenue is one of the picturesque spots along that thoroughfare. The estate in which Mrs. Luning will share consists of personal property valued at $8000. Nicholas Luning, brother of Oscar Luning, is bequeathed stock in the Mount Olivet Cemetery Association. Oscar Phillips of Oakland is bequeathed $500. Father Serda will receive $500 and the residue of the estate is bequeathed to Nora O'Brien, a niece of the testatrix, who resides in Cork, Ireland. Hearing of the probate has been set for December 15.

Mullins Bearer of Coin To Buy Highway Bonds

Supervisor John F. Mullins left this morning for Sacramento, where he will on the county treasury for $203,311, with which to purchase 200 highway bonds, in accordance with a resolution passed by the board of supervisors last evening.

PROBE FOR BRIGLIA PLEA

Widow's Suit Against Charles H. Spear Is Near End

Auto Death Balm of $25,000 Asked by Woman

Whether or not Charles H. Spear, former state harbor commissioner and one-time candidate for mayor of Berkeley, will have to pay Mrs. Francisco Briglia $25,000 for the death of her husband is a matter that a jury sitting in Superior Judge Harris' court is endeavoring to determine. Briglia, who was a saloonkeeper, was killed by the Spear automobile at 1:30 o'clock on the morning of March 9 last at Grove street and San Pablo avenue while he was walking toward his home at 630 Twenty-ninth street. Besides the widow, Briglia is survived by nine children ranging in age from 2 to 18 years.

The accident occurred when Spear and a party of friends were driving toward Berkeley after an entertainment in Oakland. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Spear, Judge and Mrs. James G. Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Landreghen of 77 Parkside Drive, Berkeley.

Burham C. Spear, son of Charles H. Spear, was driving the automobile when it struck Briglia. On the witness stand this morning the young man told the story of the accident from his viewpoint, stating that the car was in the position of the witness when he stepped in front of the car and was knocked down.

"He was about two lengths in front of me," said the witness. "I endeavored to turn to the right, but it was too late. I know that the rear wheel passed over his body for the car bumped. The headlight on the right side was damaged slightly."

In her suit for damages Mrs. Briglia alleges that the automobile was traveling more than 20 miles per hour and driven without due caution.

Submits Report on Peoples Water Co.

J. Henry Dockweiler, city water expert, submitted his bi-monthly report on the affairs of the Peoples' Water Company to the city council today. The report shows that the corporation expended $31,243.94 in the months of September and October in the operation of its plant. This brings the total expenditures in operation since January 1 of this year to $238,783.11. For construction, improvements and betterments the sum of $14,429.50 was expended in September and October, bringing the total since January 1 up to $31,429.50.

MINISTER'S WIFE IS MISSING

Mrs. Laura Mandeville Again Mysteriously Disappears

Leaves Husband Following Quarrel; Wedded in Hospital

Mrs. Laura Perry Mandeville, wife of the Rev. Franklin Mandeville, has again disappeared, and the police have been asked to assist the pastor in his search for the missing woman. Mrs. Mandeville, whose dramatic nuptials were solemnized in opposition to the wishes of her family when she was in durance in a sanitarium, and whose subsequent disappearance was the occasion of the Rev. Mandeville asking for habeas corpus proceedings to regain possession of his wife, is believed by the authorities to be slightly unbalanced, and her husband is making frantic search for her.

Following the series of strange events which eventually led to a reconciliation between Dr. Mandeville and his wife's family, and in her being restored to him, the proceedings commenced by Wm. Dray, a brother of the missing woman, to have her declared incompetent, were dismissed by Judge Ogden, and Mandeville and his wife went to live at 194 Seventh street.

ADmits QUARRELING.

The proceedings were dismissed about a week ago. Peace did not descend upon the ministerial household, however. Mandeville admitted today to the police that he and his wife quarreled.

Mrs. Mandeville disappeared in a strange manner. She and her husband had breakfasted Thursday morning in a local restaurant and were going to San Francisco. On their way they quarreled. Mrs. Mandeville asked to return to the restaurant, which was near seventh and Washington streets. Seeing she wished to enter the place a minute, she left her husband at the front door. The Rev. Mandeville waited till he got tired. His wife did not come out. He entered to investigate and discovered that the place had a rear door by which she had left.

Mandeville fears that his wife has gone to her family. Her mother is Mrs. S. R. Dray, 1711 E street, Sacramento, and is said to be a wealthy woman. It is also possible that she has taken refuge with the family of her former husband, the Perrys of Alameda, one of the old families in that city.

M. A. Quinn Estate Case Passed for Day

With numerous attorneys present in court, Superior Judge Wells was ready this morning to commence to disentangle the involved condition of affairs in the estate of the late Matilda A. Quinn, when it developed that Attorney A. F. Burke counsel for D. S. McFadden, who is a claimant for a portion of the $20,000 left by Miss Quinn, was absent in Los Angeles. As a result the matter was continued until tomorrow, when it will be taken up in regard to several petitions for partial distribution.

Three Men, Reported to Be Suspects, Scouted by Deputies

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Crews relative to the whereabouts of the young bandit who killed Horace Montague, a traveling passenger agent of the Southern Pacific railroad, while robbing the occupants of a sleeping car attached to an inbound overland train last night, sent deputy sheriffs scurrying today to Pomona, forty miles east of here, and to Amarillo, a settlement four miles from El Monte, (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

3 CAVE-IN VICTIMS STILL ENTOMBED

Cripple Creek Rescue Work Proceeding in Short Shifts

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Dec. 2.—Fighting against tone of rock and dirt hundreds of miners working in shifts of 25 minutes each struggled today to reach the three men still entombed in the Golden Cycle mine here. Four men were entombed yesterday by a cave-in and one man has been taken out alive. A fifth miner was entombed in the Christmas Mine adjoining and rescued late last night. Grave fears for the safety of the entombed men were expressed early today by rescuers who believe a second slide has occurred. The imprisoned men are Frank M. Woods, son of a prominent Colorado Springs mining man; Samuel Sorenson of Cripple Creek, and Patrick Kevany, whose home is in Goldfield, Nev.

Thomas Spindle, one of the imprisoned miners, was the first to be rescued last night. He was at the eighth level of the Golden Cycle. After 9 hours' work in the Christmas Mine, at the fourth level, Frank Garbis was taken out unharmed. Both he and Spindle had been protected from the rushing slide by the catching of "ice" boulders which checked the rush of rock and dirt just before it reached them.

Deputy Mine Inspector Jas. Stewart made an investigation of the Golden Cycle slide today. He expressed the belief that the slide was due to the fall of large supporting pillars between the slopes of the fourth and third levels.

4 WOUNDED BY POLICE BULLETS

Officers Fire Into Crowd Which Stops Wagon in Indianapolis

Autos Loaded With Blue Coats Keep Streets Clear

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—Claude Lewis, aged 18, was killed and four men were wounded, one probably fatally, this afternoon when six special police officers riding on an ice wagon, shot into a crowd which tried to stop the wagon in Indiana avenue. The special officers were taken to a police station.

The four injured are: J. H. MASON, negro; shot in abdomen; probably fatal. JOHN ASHLEY, 48; shot in left foot. ARCHIE SMITH, negro. ALEXANDER SEDAN.

Lewis, who was killed, was an elevator boy. The wagon stopped to unload ice. A large crowd began jeering and tried to prevent the wagon from moving. The special officers opened fire. Lewis, Smith, Mason and Sedan fell. Ashley was hit by a stray bullet.

A riot call brought an automobile fire truck loaded with men armed with riot guns, and several mounted officers.

Another shooting affray occurred later near the Union railway station. Jack Long, a teamster, was shot in the right leg by William Whorton, a negro, who was driving his own wagon.

A crowd had surrounded the wagon and Whorton claims that he shot in self-defense. Long's injuries are not serious.

Mayor Wallace ordered the police today to disperse a parade which was proposed by the teamsters and chauffeurs who are on strike. The police kept the crowd about labor headquarters moving and did not give the men a chance to start a demonstration.

As an additional help to the police in preventing the parade, one of the fire department large automobiles was loaded with policemen armed with riot guns. The machine was run through the downtown streets, scattering the pedestrians right and left.

'Cannot Recollect Event' Is Plea of Coulson

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Arthur R. Coulson, the Market street feed merchant who on September 19, through jealousy of his affinity, Mrs. Catherine Gallagher, shot her and killed William Acker, a chauffeur, and George Kovach, an automobile washer, was placed on trial today. The accused man, who faces three felony charges, will plead lapse of memory and will set up the claim that he cannot recollect anything of the tragedy.

A jury was sworn today in Judge Dunne's department of the Superior Court.

TRIBUNE ANNUAL TO APPEAR BIGGER, BETTER THAN EVER

THE TRIBUNE ANNUAL, famous throughout the west as the biggest bonnet of Alameda county and surrounding territory, will appear the first of the year, better than ever. THE ANNUAL will consist of more than 100 pages devoted to a pictorial, descriptive and statistical account of Alameda county's resources. THE ANNUAL will be magazine size, well bound and garbed in a five-color cover on glazed paper. A special staff has been at work on the publication for some months and neither effort nor expense is being spared to make this year's ANNUAL the best in years.

The Best Is the Cheapest

Oakland merchants know from experience that "not how cheap but how good," is a policy that works out in advertising plans as well as in other lines of business activity.

Advertising for November 1913

1913	1912
THE TRIBUNE 581,868 Lines	518,742 Lines
The Enquirer 287,014 Lines	318,528 Lines

TRIBUNE GAINED 63,126 LINES
ENQUIRER LOST 31,514 LINES

NOTE: Of this splendid increase in THE TRIBUNE business 26,600 lines of it is purely local commercial business, i. e., advertising from Oakland retail stores.

TEN SWEEP TO DEATH IN FLOOD

Texas Town Wrecked
by Torrent Which Sweeps Creek Bed

Buildings Suddenly Demolished; Citizens Caught Unaware

BELTON, Texas, Dec. 2.—Sweeping down Nolan creek during the darkness of early morning, a great wave, resembling a tidal flow, wrecked buildings, tore down fences and swept ten people to their deaths.

The creek, which runs through the center of this city, rose to a leading torrent, flooding houses and streets and creating damage which will run into thousands of dollars.

The wave was over thirty feet in height. The first warning citizens had was when the swirling torrent was in the midst of the city, carrying before it fences, bits of timber from demolished barns and other debris picked up outside of the city limits. These crashed against walls, adding to the damage done by the flood.

DEATH TOLL HEAVY.
The death list has not been accurately determined but it is declared that ten people living near the creek's path through the city were swept away. Others may have been and it will probably be several hours before an accurate estimate can be made.

The wave is declared to be the largest ever seen in the creek and the first to cause serious damage or loss of life. One man, caught in the flood, saved himself by clinging to a lamp post to prevent his being torn away in the turbulent water. Another saved himself after being swept away by clinging to a projecting pile.

The creek, which runs through the center of the town, had not been particularly high. In some places houses had been built to the very edge and these suffered considerably.

FIFTY HOUSES DESTROYED.
Fifty houses along the creek's banks in Belton were swept away. In the center of the town Mrs. W. C. Polk and her four children were caught asleep in their home and drowned.

Polk, carrying the fifth child, an infant, escaped a high ground. Five families, a man, his wife and three children, were reported as another family, that of a camper. His name was not known here.

When the main street bridge in Temple, Texas, was demolished by the wave, an unidentified man was on the structure. It is believed he perished.

The creek's rise was the result of a downpour of four hours duration.

JOHN BARLEYCORN MUCH IN EVIDENCE IN COURT

W. B. Griffith admitted to Superior Judge Donahue today that John Barleycorn had been the cause of his downfall and subsequent desertion of his wife and five-year-old daughter, and asked to be locked up in jail until he got over the craving for liquor. He was placed in custody for three weeks, pending the report of the probation officer.

E. A. Fuller, arrested for violating his probation by drinking, was taken to a prison sentence. The appearance of his young wife in court, and the fact that she is about to become a mother, led the court to continue the defendant on probation.

John Lutz, who stole brass water faucets when under the influence of liquor was released on a three-year term of probation, with the understanding that he would place himself under the care of a physician for a treatment.

L. M. Osborn, accused of failure to provide for his wife and five children with draw his plea of not guilty and was sentenced to two years, with the understanding that he should go to the county infirmary for treatment.

'NO POLITICS' DECLARES CAPWELL

Consolidation Move Has No
Ultimate Motive, He Asserts.

Remarks Attributed to Secretary Denison Create Stir; Counter Statements.

I see there is no politics in this movement.

Thus did H. C. Capwell, whose suggestion first brought the matter of consolidation of the commercial organizations of Oakland, today answer charges credited Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce, which charges alleged that because the Chamber of Commerce was a non-political organization, it was being whipped into line.

"There is no politics about this," declared Capwell, "and I am at a loss to know what Mr. Denison means. I have heard of his charges but have not seen them. I will say this. We believe better work can be done for the city of Oakland if a way can be found to consolidate the organizations and the committee will work on the problem. There is no idea of politics in the committee. I do not understand this at all, and do not see how these charges may be made."

Denison had, it is declared, characterized the proposed consolidation as an "attempt to put all the political eggs into one basket." Further he is quoted as saying that "the whole situation is that we are being whipped into line and we don't like the whipping."

BULLETIN IN REPLY.
The same idea is expressed in the Chamber of Commerce Bulletin in which, in a leading editorial, the Chamber claims that the organization does not depend on politics or private interests. What private interests are suspected is not specified. Denison has charge of the issuance of the booklet.

The directors of the Chamber of Commerce met last night in executive session with the executive committee of the Manufacturers' Association, the secretary of which, Frederic Boegle, had been indirectly assailed by Denison. Denison had charged that a director who had recently resigned had been "doing politics and dirty work." Boegle had resigned.

The result of the conference, according to one report of the session, was that Denison will be asked to publish a retraction of his statement. Boegle will insist on his resignation being accepted, and another man will take his place. The disputed seat in the consolidation tomorrow has been conceded the Manufacturers' Committee, and the Chamber may agree to pay the salary of another man to handle their work without extra dues by the manufacturers. These decisions, while unofficial, have been confirmed by parties interested and will probably be officially confirmed at the next meeting of the Chamber directors. Boegle, with Chairman John T. Scott of the committee, resigned when the consolidation move started to afford greater freedom to the new heads of the combined organization.

WILL DEFEND BOEGLE.
The Manufacturers' Committee will in the meantime take up the case of Boegle and defend him against any charges which may be brought up.

Senator Frank Leavitt named as chairman of the Manufacturers' Committee, to the conference committee on consolidation, served notice that he could not attend at the meetings on account of other work in the Pacific Coast Commercial Club conference. Frank W. Bilger was named as co-delegate.

"Denison was asked to retract what he said," said John Phillips, one of the members of the Manufacturers' Committee, "and we feel that it is only fair that he should. As far as the other matters are concerned, there was no agreement. The Manufacturers' Committee stands in the same position that it was, employing the same secretary and paying the same dues. What else happens remains to be seen."

COMMISSIONER HAS TIFF WITH WOMAN

Morgenstern Overlooked at
to Playgrounds.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—As an aftermath of the ceremony held Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Park, at which time two barges were extended from the San Francisco Bridge Company for the use of the children of the Alameda playground, Mrs. Ellen Allen and Councilman A. L. Morgenstern engaged in a duel of words, which for a time was heated. The trouble started because Morgenstern did not return a special invitation to attend the ceremony. He stated that as he was the head of the recreation commission he believed that these invitations should be issued. He addressed his remarks to Play Supervisor John Gutleben.

Gutleben said that when the ceremony was to be held about a month ago it was postponed on account of rain. Invitations were extended to Morgenstern and other members of the commission. When plans were arranged for the ceremony of Saturday, no new invitations were extended. He said that it was probably a misunderstanding that Morgenstern was not in attendance at the affair.

Mrs. Allen then came to Gutleben's defense and declared to Morgenstern that she did not like his attitude in the matter. "You have not seen me in the matter," she said, "and there ensued a volley of words, in which the councilman said he did not think Mrs. Allen had acted as a lady. The other members of the division did not enter into the discussion.

Mrs. Allen stated today that the matter was a personal one between herself and Morgenstern, and that if she did not change his attitude that there would be constant clashes between them.

Progressives Form Conference Plans

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—Plans were unfolded here today for the progressive conference that is to be held at the Palace hotel, San Francisco, Saturday. Chester H. Rowell is scheduled to open the meeting as temporary chairman and will introduce Governor Johnson who will make the keynote speech. The governor then will be chosen permanent chairman. In finding a committee to handle the California fight for the party the present Republican state central committee, chosen at the convention held here in 1912 will be re-christened as the "Progressive State Central Committee." The committee as a "Republican committee" will disband to take up the new moniker.

FORMER CONGRESSMAN

HARRISBURG, Pa., Dec. 2.—The patient in the Harrisburg hospital identified by Buffalo men as Rowland B. Mahany, who served two terms in Congress and also was minister to Ecuador twenty years ago, refused today to admit the identification. When found by Harrisburg police last Friday suffering from poisoning he said his name was Charles Brown. He was immediately taken to the hospital and on Saturday he attempted to cut his throat.

RAILROAD AGENT BANDIT'S VICTIM

near where the tragedy was perpetrated. A. Q. St. George, a rancher at Amarillo, telephoned to the sheriff's office that he had chased two men who had been hiding in a eucalyptus grove adjoining to his ranch, but that both had escaped. Deputies were sent from El Monte to take the trail of the two men.

SUSPECT BOARDS TRAIN.

Shortly afterward a motorman, who drove an electric suburban train past the scene of the robbery and murder last night, reported that a young man answering the general description of the bandit had boarded his train and gone to Pomona.

The murder and robbery occurred four miles from Los Angeles. The bandit was not found last night on any inbound suburban cars, but he has had plenty of time to walk into the city and the police are searching rooming houses and saloons to find him.

Montague was not given a chance for life. The bandit was robbing the passengers and the last sleeping car when the passenger agent stepped into it from the car ahead. The frightened passengers gave him no warning, and with the cry "Throw up your hands!" the robber fired a bullet into his forehead.

AGENT ABOUT TO JOIN FAMILY.

Montague was preparing at the time to leave the train at Shorb station, a few miles distant, to board a trolley car for Alhambra, where his wife and two babies were waiting for him.

The bandit was a youth and the robbery perhaps his first big dip into crime. Passengers described him as not more than 24 years of age, medium height and weighing between 150 and 160 pounds.

The robber obtained not more than $500 all told in property and money from the passengers in the car.

Mrs. A. M. Colen of 2390 Webster street, San Francisco, wife of a railroad engineer, gave up a $250 diamond ring.

Mrs. Laura Doty of Oakland surrendered $60 cash. J. W. Cornaton, the car conductor, lost everything but his watch. His mother, now dead, gave that to him and the youthful bandit tossed it back to him when apprised of the fact.

REWARD OF $5,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—A reward of $5,000 was offered today by the Southern Pacific Company for the night killed Horace E. Montague.

Democrats to Force The Currency Issue

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Efforts to get an agreement to vote in the Senate on the currency bill Saturday, December 20, failed today, but the Senate Democrats began an energetic program which they expect will force early action.

Senator Williams of Mississippi announced that it was the intention of the Democrats to exhaust the Senate and force an early vote.

Senator Brewster attacked in unmeasured terms and at length the Democratic program, and declared the Democrats proposed to pass a bill by "physical exhaustion" instead of fair and free debate.

Murderer Chops Aged Victim With Axe

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 2.—John Reddy, 60 years old, was slain mysteriously last night in front of a store on Fourth street, where he was carrying in wood. Some Chinese nearby who witnessed the deed declared a roughly dressed man rush up to Reddy, wrested away his ax and with it felled his victim, whose head he then proceeded to chop with frightful ferocity. The slayer fled into the darkness and escaped.

PRESIDENT WILSON DECLARES THAT HUERTA'S REGIME IS TOTTERING

Message to Congress Makes It Plain "Usurper's" Rule Will Never Be Recognized By United States

intrusion of myself into the picture if either nation determines its course of action.

stant satisfaction I have availed myself of the privileges of putting my time and energy at their disposal alike in counsel and in action."

The President's message in full follows: In pursuance of my constitutional duty to "give to the Congress information of the state of the Union," I take the liberty of addressing you on several matters which ought, as it seems to me, particularly to engage the attention of your honorable bodies, as of all who endeavor the welfare and progress of the nation.

I shall ask your indulgence if I venture to depart in some degree from the usual custom of setting before you in formal review the many matters which have engaged the attention and called for the action of the several departments of the government or which look to them for early treatment in the future, because the list is long, very long, and would suffer in the abbreviation to which I should have to subject it. I shall submit to you the reports of the heads of the several departments, in which these subjects are set forth in careful detail, and beg that they may receive the thoughtful attention of your committees and of all Members of the Congress who may have the leisure to study them. Their obvious importance, as constituting the very substance of the business of the government, makes comment and emphasis on my part unnecessary.

COUNTRY AT PEACE.

The country, I am thankful to say, is at peace with all the world, and many happy manifestations multiply about us of a growing cordiality and sense of community of interest among the nations, foreshadowing an age of settled peace and good will. More and more readily each people do the nations manifest their willingness to bind themselves by solemn treaty to the process of peace, the processes of frankness and fair concession. So far the United States has stood at the front of such negotiations. She will, I earnestly hope and confidently believe, give fresh proof of her sincere adherence to the cause of international friendship by ratifying the several treaties of arbitration awaiting renewal by the Senate. In addition to these, it has been the privilege of the Department of State to gain the assent, in principle, of no less than 31 nations, representing four-fifths of the population of the world, to the negotiation of treaties by which it shall be agreed that whenever differences of interest or of policy arise which can not be resolved by the ordinary processes of diplomacy they shall be publicly analyzed, discussed, and reported upon by a tribunal chosen by the parties before lapse is not far away. We shall not, believe, be obliged to alter our policy of watchful waiting. And then, when the end comes, we shall hope to see constituted a restored and distressed Mexico by the concert and energy of such of her leaders as prefer the liberty of their people to their own ambitions.

THE CURRENCY BILL.

I turn to matters of domestic concern. You already have under consideration a bill for the reform of our system of banking and currency, for which the country waits with impatience, as for something fundamental to its whole business life and necessary to its credit. I need not say how earnestly I hope for its early enactment into law. I take leave to beg that the whole energy and attention of the Senate be concentrated upon it till yet I feel that the request is not needed—that the Members of that great House need no urging in this service to the country.

I present to you, in addition, the urgent necessity that special provision be made also for facilitating the credits needed by the farmers of the country. The pending currency bill does the farmers a great service. It puts them upon an equal footing with other business men and matters of enterprise, as it would and upon its passage they will find themselves quit of many of the difficulties which now hamper them in the field of credit. The farmers, of course, ask and should be given no special privilege, such as extending to them the credit of the government itself. What they need and should obtain is legislation which will make their own abundant and substantial credit resources available as a foundation for joint, concerted local action in their own behalf in getting the capital they must use. It is to this we should now address ourselves.

INDUSTRY LAGS.

It has, singularly enough, come to pass that we have allowed the industry of our farms to lag behind the other activities of the country in its development. I need not stop to tell you how fundamental to the life of the nation is the production of its food. Our thoughts may ordinarily be concentrated upon the cities and the hives of industry, upon the cries of the crowded market place and the clamor of the factory, but it is from the quietness of the open valleys and the free hill-sides that we draw the sources of life and of prosperity, from the farm and the ranch from the forest and the mine. Without these every street factory falls into disrepair. And yet the farmer does not stand upon the same footing with the forester and the miner in the market of credit. He is the servant of the seasons. Nature determines how long he must wait for his crops, and will not be hurried in her processes. He may give his note, but the season of its maturity depends upon the season when his crop matures, lies at the gates of the market where his products are sold. And the security he gives is of a character not known in the broker's office or as familiarly as it might be on the counter of the banker.

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT. The Agricultural Department of the government is seeking to assist as never before to make farming an efficient business, of wide co-operative effort, in quick touch with the markets for foodstuffs.

The farmers and the government will henceforth work together as real partners in this field, where we now begin to see our way very clearly and where many intelligent plans are already being put into effect. The treasury of the United States has, by a well-considered distribution of its deposits, facilitated the moving of the crops in the present season and prevented the scarcity of available funds too often experienced at such times. But we must not allow ourselves to depend upon extraordinary expedients. We must add the means by which the farmer may make his credit constantly and easily available and command when he will the capital by which to support and expand his business. We lag behind many other great countries of the modern world in attempting to do this. Systems of rural credit have been

SPECIAL COMMISSION.

Conscious of this backwardness and neglect on our part, the Congress recently authorized the creation of a special commission to study the various systems of rural credit which have been put into effect in Europe and to report to the House. I am already prepared to report. Its report ought to make it easier for us to determine what methods will be best suited to our own farmers. I hope and believe that the committees of the Senate and House will address themselves to this matter with the most fruitful results, and I believe that the studies and recently formed plans of the Department of Agriculture may be made to serve them very greatly in their work of framing appropriate and adequate legislation. It would be indiscreet and presumptuous in anyone to dogmatize upon so great and many-sided a question, but I feel confident that common counsel will produce the results we must all desire.

AGAINST PRIVATE MONOPOLY.

Turn from the farm to the world of business which centers in the city and in the factory, and I think that all thoughtful observers will agree that the most important of our business communities of the country is to prevent private monopoly more effectively than it has yet been prevented. I think it will be easily agreed that we should let the Sherman antitrust law stand, unaltered, as it is, with its debatable ground about it, but that we should as much as possible reduce the areas of that debatable ground by further and more explicit legislation, and should also supplement that great act by legislation which will not only clarify it but also facilitate its administration and make it fairer to all concerned. No doubt we shall all wish, and the country will expect, this to be the central subject of our deliberations during the present session. I think it is a subject of many-sidedness and so deserving of careful and discriminating discussion that I shall take the liberty of addressing you upon it in a special message at a later date than this. It is of capital importance that the business men of this country should be relieved of all uncertainties of law with regard to their enterprises and investments, and a clear path indicated which they can travel without anxiety. It is as important that they should be relieved of embarrassment and set free to prosper as that private monopoly should be destroyed. The ways of action should be thrown wide open.

SELECTING NOMINEES.

I turn to a subject which I hope can be handled promptly and without serious controversy of any kind. I mean the method of selecting nominees for the Presidency of the United States. I feel confident that I do not misinterpret the wishes or the expectations of the country when I urge the prompt enactment of legislation which will provide for primary elections throughout the country at which the voters of the several parties may elect their nominees for the Presidency, without the intervention of nominating conventions. I venture the suggestion that this legislation should provide for the retention of party conventions, but only for the purpose of declaring and accepting the verdict of the primaries and formulating the platforms of the parties; and I suggest that these conventions should consist not of delegates chosen for this single purpose, but of the nominees for Congress, the nominees for vacant seats in the Senate of the United States, the Senators whose terms have not yet closed, the national committees, and the candidates for the Presidency themselves, in order that platforms may be framed by those responsible to the people for carrying them into effect.

OBLIGATIONS TO TERRITORIES.

These are all matters of vital domestic concern, and besides them, the charmed circle of our own national life, which our affections command us, as well as our consciences, there stand out our obligations toward our territories over sea. Here we are trustees. Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines, are ours, indeed, but not ours to do what we please with. Such territories, once regarded as mere possessions, are no longer to be selfishly exploited; they are part of the domain of public conscience and of serviceable and enlightened statesmanship. We must administer them for the people who live in them and with the same sense of responsibility to them as toward our own people in our domestic affairs. No doubt we shall successfully enough bind Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands to ourselves by ties of justice and interest and affection, but the performance of our duty toward the Philippines is a more difficult and debatable matter. We satisfy the obligations of generous justice toward the people of Porto Rico by giving them the ample and familiar rights and privileges accorded our own citizens in our own territories and our obligations toward the people of Hawaii by perfecting the provisions for self-government already granted them, but in the Philippines we are in a new field.

ULTIMATE INDEPENDENCE.

We must hold steadily in view their ultimate independence, and we must move toward the time of that independence as steadily as the way can be cleared and the foundations thoughtfully and permanently laid. Acting under the authority conferred upon the President by Congress, I have already accorded the people of the islands a majority in both houses of their legislative body by appointing five instead of three members.

of the commission. I believe that in this way we shall make proof of their capacity in counsel and their sense of responsibility in the exercise of political power, and that the success of this step will be sure to clear our view for the steps which are to follow. Step by step we should extend and perfect the system of self-government in the islands, making test of them and modifying them as experience demonstrates their successes and their failures; that we should move and move but under the control of the native citizens of the archipelago the essential instruments of their life, their local instrumentalities of government, their schools, all the common interests of their communities, and so by counsel and experience set up a government which all the world will see to be suitable to a people whose affairs are under their own control.

LEARN TO SERVE WITH THEM.

At last, I hope and believe, we are beginning to gain the confidence of the Philippine peoples. By their counsel and experience, rather than by our own, we shall learn how best to serve them and how soon it will be possible and wise to withdraw our supervision. Let us once find the path and set on with firm and confident tread upon it and we shall not wander from it or linger upon it.

A duty faces us with regard to Alaska imperative, perhaps I should say a double duty, for it concerns both the political and the material development of the territory. The people should be given the full territorial form of government, and Alaska as a storehouse, should be unlocked. One key to it is a system of railways. These the government should itself build and administer, and the ports and terminals it should itself control in the interest of all who wish to use them for the service of a development of the interior and the people.

EXPLOITING RESOURCES.

How the tempting resources of the country are to be exploited is another matter, to which I shall take the liberty of from time to time calling your attention, for it is a policy which must be worked out by well-considered stages, not upon theory, but upon lines of practical expediency. It is part of our general problem of conservation. We have a great hand in working out the problem in Alaska than in the States of the Union; and yet the principle and object are the same, wherever we touch it. We must use the resources of the country, not lock them up. There need be no conflict or jealousy as between State and Federal authorities, for there can be no essential difference of purpose between them. The resources in question must be used, but not destroyed or wasted; used, but not monopolized upon any narrow idea of individual rights as against the abiding interests of communities. That a policy can be worked out by common sense and common counsel which will release these resources and yet not leech or dissipate them, I for one have no doubt, and it can be done on lines of regulation which need be no less acceptable to the people and governments of the states concerned than to the people and government of the nation at large, whose heritage these resources are. I do not need to bend my counsel to this end. A minor purpose ought to make agreement easy.

BUREAU OF MINES.

Our Bureau of Mines ought to be equipped and empowered to render even more effective service than it renders now in improving the conditions of mine labor and making the mines more economically productive, as well as in the conservation of those who administer the affairs of the country than to the advantage of those whom they employ. The experience of a large number of the states abundantly proves that.

We ought to devote ourselves to meeting pressing demands of plain justice like this as earnestly as to the accomplishment of political and economic reforms. Social justice comes first. Law is the machinery for its realization and is vital only as it expresses and embodies it.

SAFETY AT SEA.

An international congress for the discussion of all questions that affect safety at sea is now sitting in London at the suggestion of our own government. So soon as the conclusions of that congress can be learned and considered we ought to address ourselves, among other things, to the prompt alleviation of the very unsafe, unjust, and burdensome conditions which now surround the employment of sailors and render it extremely difficult to obtain the services of spirited and competent men such as every ship needs if it is to be safely handled and brought to port.

May I not express the very real pleasure I have experienced in co-operating with this Congress and sharing with it the labors of common service to which it has devoted itself so unreservedly during the past several months of uncompromising concentration upon the business of legislation? Surely it is a proper and pertinent part of my report on "the state of the Union" to express my admiration for the diligence, the good temper, and the full comprehension of public duty which has already been manifested by both the House and the Senate. I have not deemed an impertinent intrusion of myself into the picture if I say with how much and how constant satisfaction I have availed myself of the privilege of putting my time and energy at their disposal alike in counsel and in action.

OUTLAW IN MINE MAY BE DEAD

Fumes Believed to Have Killed Imprisoned Bandit

for 48 Hours; Sulphur Burns

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 2.—One hundred pounds of sulphur an hour has been burning in the Mistle mine since 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. An attempt to either kill or smoke out Ralph Lopez, the Mexican bandit who has killed five men since he became a fugitive from justice twelve days ago after murdering one of his countrymen.

Sheriff Andrew Smith said this morning that he would not allow his men to take any more chances with their lives and that he would not open the mine for another search for Lopez for forty-eight hours from the time the fires were started. If this plan is carried out the bulkheads which now bar the passages into the mine will not be removed until Wednesday afternoon. Until that time the sulphur fumes will continue to be forced into the mine.

BELIEVES BANDIT DEAD.
There is but little doubt that Lopez still is in the mine where he has been hiding since last Friday night. Sheriff Smith said that he believed the bandit was dead, but would make sure by keeping up his fires of sulphur for another day.

A hundred deputies remained on guard throughout the night, but no sign came from the mine. The last word from the fugitive was heard yesterday when he was heard to call faintly for his former comrade and partner, Julius Corrello. Twice he called "Julio" in a voice that indicated pulmonary trouble, but when he was answered there was no response from within and the belief that the deadly fumes of sulphur and formaldehyde have accomplished their purpose.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED.
Only such work as has been absolutely necessary has been carried on here in the last few days and business affairs generally are at a standstill. So intense has become the interest in the man-hunt. The streets and the hills in the vicinity of the mine which holds the murderer are filled with men anxious to lend whatever assistance they can to capture Lopez. His own countrymen have turned against him and threats were made to kill him this morning that Lopez would never reach a prison alive even though he escapes death in the mine and surrenders.

Fat Policewomen Are Banned From Chicago Force

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—Fat policewomen may be all right, but fat policewomen will not be allowed in the Chicago police force. Many of the 300 women who were applicants for positions of policewomen were disappointed yesterday when they were not allowed to complete an examination given by the civil service commission because they were too fat. The examiners let it be known that hereafter women must be from 115 to 180 pounds in weight, and from five feet six inches to five feet nine inches if they want to wear a star.

STRONG CASE AGAINST YOUNG GARLIC THIEVES

"This appears to be a very strong

this morning when Clerk L. A. Anselmo read information against John Alameda and A. V. Butler charging them with the theft of a sack of garlic from a Niles merchant. The defendants are two boys and, according to the view of the case taken by the court, the crime they committed was in proportion to their sizes. They were charged with burglary in the second degree.

"It appears that they should have been charged only with petty larceny," said the court. The information does not show that they broke into the building, but that they merely carried away the goods.

The defendants pleaded guilty and asked for probation. Judge Donahue sent them to jail for a week pending the report of the probation officer with the understanding that if the report was not ready by that time they could be released on their own recognizance.

ASHLAND TO VOTE BOND ISSUE FOR NEW SCHOOL

Election for a proposed $10,000 bond issue for a new school at Ashland, between Oakland and San Leandro, will be held on December 8, on petition of H. C. Cutting, a business man of that district and head of the board of school trustees.

At present Ashland students are compelled to walk to San Lorenzo, this being the nearest school to the tract. That was the case across two railroad lines. Geo. Brown, Harry Smith and William O'Connor will be election judges, the balloting to be directed by the county authorities.

OFFICER CUTS DOWN LAME SHOEMAKER BUDGET IS PLANNED

Lieut. Von Forstner Brutally Sabres Prisoner of Zabern.

The City Incensed Over Brutality of Titled Officer.

ZABERN, Alsace, Germany, Dec. 2. Lieutenant Baron von Forstner, who started the trouble between the troops and civilians here by referring scornfully to the citizens when he addressed the recruits of his company, aroused still further indignation against the army today by cutting down a lame Alsatian shoemaker with his sabre.

The titled lieutenant was leading a half company of the Ninety-ninth Infantry from the barracks to the country to go through the morning drill when a group of workmen recognized Von Forstner. They hooted the officer, who at once halted his company and sent a squad of soldiers in pursuit.

The infantrymen succeeded in catching only one man, a lame shoemaker who resisted arrest.

Von Forstner came up and deliberately struck him on the head with the sharpened edge of his sabre. The wound is a dangerous one.

The fresh incident has created such tension that serious bloodshed is feared unless the Ninety-ninth regiment is transferred immediately.

RETIRED SOLDIER IS BEATEN AND ROBBED

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Curtis Rouse, a retired soldier of 3137 Laguna street, was beaten and robbed by three footpads, who dogged his steps for a half dozen blocks this morning.

Rouse was enjoying a late supper at a chop suey restaurant in Chinatown when the robbers caught sight of him. They followed him from the place and attacked him at the corner of Montgomery and Jackson streets. His pockets were rifled of $50 and he received a blow in the head. His injuries were dressed at the Harbor hospital.

WOMEN MAY ABANDON SUBSCRIPTION SCHEME FOR SUPPORT

Delegates to the Equal Rights Convention Have Busy Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Chief interest in the second day's session of the convention of the National Women Suffrage association was in the discussion of a new constitution to provide a budget system. Money for carrying on the work hitherto has been raised by subscription.

Reports of credentials, ways and means, church work, congressional and other committees took up the morning session. The committee which drew up the new constitution also was ready to report.

LIKENEED TO RACE

The long struggle for woman suffrage in Illinois was likened today to a relay race. Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch of Evanston, Ill., described how the work had been carried forward for 53 years until the recent action of the legislature in voting to place the suffrage amendment to the constitution before the people had brought the goal in sight. The race, she said, was likely to last three years longer.

"Through these years, small, less important goals were reached by these great women and their co-workers equality in laws relating to marriage and divorce, to descent of real and personal property, to guardianship of children, equal opportunity to enter school and professions, and to hold certain offices," she said. "Illinois has probably the best laws concerning women to be found outside of the full suffrage states."

The Illinois women were aided, Mrs. McCulloch said, by groups of men in the Federation of Labor and in the Socialist, Prohibition and Progressive parties. Individual Republicans and Democrats, however, showed their interest through the presidential vote at the Chicago primaries in April, 1912.

Although most of those who voted at this time were members of the two older parties, whose state platforms were silent on the subject of suffrage and supposed to be opposed, 73,374 persons voted for woman suffrage, the largest vote for suffrage that has been cast in any city of the world.

This vote the Illinois women knew presaged victory.

VOLUNTEERS HELP

The speaker told how of late years they had ceased to depend upon volunteer workers and paid the expenses of women lobbyists. "At first," she said, "our early workers asked for an amendment. Then after our school suffrage bill of 1891 was held constitutional, we had a variety of bills with larger or smaller fragments of suffrage incorporated and sometimes passed a bill through one house. The large bill which covers everything we can get under the constitution (our enemies say more) began to be presented about 1895 or 1897 and had its ups and downs. While we always asked for full suffrage through the almost impossible amendment, we had this bill so that any member who believed in it could vote for it. The latter was first, could, without neglecting his first amendment, vote for this bill anyway as an evidence of good faith."

"Many states are writing to find out whether they may not pass a similar bill. They say, every state legislature can get under the right to vote for presidential electors, and most propositions. As to the other officers named in our bill, we must search diligently in the constitution of each state for the names of all officers mentioned there. If there are any others, the legislatures of the legislatures, the legislature can prescribe the qualifications of the voters for these officers. These crumbs of suffrage can somewhat allay the pangs of hunger till we receive the whole loaf or enfranchisement."

THREE FRENCH VESSELS ARRIVE AT LONG WHARF

Three French vessels are discharging at Long wharf. They are the bark Vincennes and Noemi and the ship Ernest. The Vincennes, in charge of Captain Menguy, came from Newcastle, Eng., with a general merchandise cargo. The Noemi came in from Hamburg in charge of Captain Gulader, while the Ernest got in from Newcastle, Eng., with Captain Riquart in charge. The latter vessel, with the completion of its local work, load lumber for the United Kingdom.

BURGLAR SUSPECT IS WASHINGTON EX-CONVICT

John Broach, captured yesterday in the Central hotel and charged with attempted burglary, has been identified as an ex-convict from the Washington state penitentiary, out on parole. Broach was sent up for an indeterminate sentence of from one to fourteen years, and was paroled for the remainder of his time. He was found in a clothes-closet in the Central hotel in Twelfth street by Mrs. Myers, and held there by Mr. and Mrs. John McCurdy until the arrival of the police.

ASKS POLICE TO SEEK L. A. DIAMOND, MISSING

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—L. E. Diamond, a solicitor for the Confidential Insurance company, living at 2813 Folsom street, has been missing since November 29. His mother appealed to the authorities today to institute a search for him. He is 35 years old, five feet, nine inches

BOYS ARE ON PROBATION FOR DISTURBING PEACE

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Ezmer Brown and Walter Green, two west end youths who were charged with disturbing the peace, were placed on six months' probation by Police Judge R. B. Tappan this morning. The youths pleaded guilty. Brown attacked L. A. Beeson on Webster street, Sunday. It being claimed that Beeson was in the wrong, the youths were placed on probation for disturbing the peace of the children and the mother.

Forced to Close Out ENTIRE $21,000 STOCK!

Prior to Removal to Their New Location

For TEN DAYS—beginning Wednesday, December 3rd, at 9:30 A. M.—we will sell merchandise from this well-known stock of Ladies' Cloaks and Suits at prices hitherto unheard of in the City of Oakland. The occasion demands heroic measures. The knife has gone deep. Cost or Value will not be considered in making prices. THE NEW YORK SUIT HOUSE has always been known as a STORE OF QUALITY—a store where only dependable merchandise could be bought. Any sane person is glad to trade at such a place and pay regular prices. Sorry we are indeed that circumstances force us to so unmercifully slaughter prices on this excellent stock. But we are here to get the money. Value or cost cuts no figure with us. We make prices that get the business and get it quick. A chance of a lifetime.

Special Announcement

The store is now closed to prepare for this stupendous Sale. A large force of salespeople have been engaged to re-arrange and mark down the stock. Everything will be marked in plain figures that can readily be seen by everybody who comes.

Long Beach to Defend Suite Born of Disaster

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Rulings on file today in the superior court cleared for trial suits aggregating more than $300,000 against the city of Long Beach, for damages as a result of personal injuries sustained in the partial collapse of the seashore auditorium last May during the British celebration of Empire day. Attorneys for Long Beach argued that the auditorium was conducted under a governmental or proprietary right, but Judge Jackson ruled that the city had conducted the auditorium as a private amusement enterprise and therefore must appear in court and make a defense to the suits pending. In the disaster more than 100 persons were killed and injured. A number of other actions are being prepared which will bring the total amount of damages demanded to more than half a million.

Insane Patient Turns On Policeman: Is Shot

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Brought to bay after a chase through the wholesale section at 4:30 this morning, Manuel Piquero, an insane laborer, turned upon Policeman Patrick J. Murray and was shot in the leg by the officer. Piquero, who resides at the United States house, 7 Washington street, ran out of the building, minus his coat, hat and vest, and with something shining in his hand, ran up the street. Policeman Kinsinger pursued him to Jackson and Drum streets and called upon him to halt. Officer Murray caught sight of the fugitive and joined in the chase, which led along Drum street to Broadway. It was not until the policeman almost caught up with Piquero that the latter suddenly turned on Murray and made at him in the darkness. The officer fired low, the bullet striking Piquero in the leg. At that, he threw up his hands and dropped to the sidewalk. He was removed to the Harbor hospital and examined by Dr. Edberger.

Explosion in Drug Store Kills Clerk

WATERLOO, Ia., Dec. 2.—An explosion of chemicals today caused the death of William Schneidermann and the serious injury of John Roberts, clerks in a drug store here. Roberts was compounding chemicals to be used to produce a calcium light. When he momentarily stepped away from the compound, Schneidermann, an inexperienced clerk, attempted to mix the ingredients. The explosion followed. Schneidermann died an hour later. Roberts' condition is considered serious. Four customers in the store were hurt. The interior of the store was wrecked.

Confer With Wilson on Trust Question

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Secretary Redfield of the department of commerce and Joseph Davies, commissioner of corporations, conferred for an hour with President Wilson today on the trust question. Today's conference was in the nature of a survey of the facts upon which corrective legislation might be based.

AUTO SEARCHLIGHTS TOO BRIGHT FOR SQUAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Lieutenant Duncan Mathewson of the traffic squad, announced today that he would recommend to the street committee of the supervisors that automobile searchlights be dimmed. He placed the responsibility for more than half of the recent accidents on the glare of the headlights of the machines. Mathewson argues that it is very confusing at night, not only to pedestrians, but to drivers of other vehicles, to see in the path of a sweeping streak of light which is thrown into the eyes. It is absolutely essential, he contends, that a screen be placed in front of the burners and that the horrible glare be dimmed.

REAPPOINTMENT OF CLEMENTS URGED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The reappointment of Judson W. Clements of Georgia as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission was urged in a resolution jointly that has been offered in the House Committee on Interstate Commerce by Representatives Sims of Tennessee and Koch of Wisconsin. The resolution declared that his retirement "would be a little short of a calamity." The committee's adoption of the resolution was assured.

Two prominent families will be united tomorrow evening, with the marriage of Miss Avis Sherwood, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamilton Sherwood of Piedmont, and George F. Newton, prominent in social and club circles of the bay cities. Miss Sherwood is an exceedingly accomplished girl, as well as attractive, and has had all the advantages that European travel and education can afford one. She will be attended by her sister, Miss Mary Sherwood, as maid of honor, while A. B. Weeks will be groomsmen. The ceremony will be a simple one, although elegant in detail, having its setting at the home of the bride's parents in Claremont at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride-to-be will wear a handsome traveling gown, the couple leaving immediately for their honeymoon trip, and on their return will make their home in San Francisco. Rev. Father Geo. of St. Peter's Chapel will read the impressive marriage service of the Episcopal Church. Miss Sherwood made her debut into local society three years ago at the Century Club. She is a niece of Mrs. Wilfred B. Chapman and of William Sherwood and a brother of Warner Sherwood, now studying music in Vienna. She is a cousin of Mrs. Benjamin Foss (Dorothy Sherwood). Mr. Newton is one of the directors of the Union League Club and a member of the Olympic and Commercial Clubs. He is president of the Newton California Fireworks Company.

OMAR is the perfect Turkish Blend cigarette, because it is the product of a perfect tobacco organization.

The TURKISH TOBACCOS used in OMAR are selected by OUR OWN BUYING CORPS in Turkey. These expert leaf-buyers KNOW EVERY SQUARE FOOT OF SOIL in their districts—know WHERE to GET THE BEST leaf—where to avoid the poor leaf.

They buy from ONLY SIX of the THIRTY villages in Smyrna, because those six villages produce the VERY BEST Smyrna tobacco.

The leaf from the other twenty-four villages is bought by middlemen and sold to OTHER cigarette manufacturers—because it LOOKS EXACTLY LIKE the good Smyrna leaf.

The DOMESTIC TOBACCOS in OMAR are selected by the GREATEST LEAF-EXPERTS in America—men who have SPENT THEIR LIVES in judging and handling this tobacco.

The IDEAL TURKISH BLEND of OMAR is the result of MONTHS of careful experiment by the most SKILLFUL BLEND-EXPERTS in the world—experienced in the production of BILLIONS of cigarettes for 25 YEARS.

The FRENCH CIGARETTE PAPER in which OMAR is rolled is the MOST EXPENSIVE brought to this country—specially made to give the EXACT SPEED OF COMBUSTION as the tobacco.

The perfect workmanship of OMAR is the product of well-paid labor and costly, modern machinery, in bright, clean factories—where NO HAND TOUCHES OMAR from the leaf to the package.

OMAR is an absolutely NEW LUXURY of tobacco enjoyment—TRY IT.

A Common Cause That Should Not Be "Knocked."

Fault-finders who make a practice, almost akin to a profession, to spread stories of the incompleteness of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, should take a trip to the fair grounds and note what is being done there. To explain the work in detail would require a vast amount of newspaper space. It is sufficient to say that the construction is far in advance of that of any other similar expositions and that the fair will open on the date set for the ceremony, with very few finishing touches needed to make it a perfect piece of modern art and structural splendor.

It is not up to any person or persons of California to in any way belittle the exposition. The railroads that have at all times trained men to study possible traffic during such events as the Panama-Pacific Exposition say that they are putting forward every effort to handle the enormous crowds that have even at this early date shown inclination to make the trip to the coast in 1915. The number of conventions to be held in San Francisco, Oakland and other bay cities in themselves will attract thousands. Many of these conventions are to assemble in Oakland and every line of business will be stimulated by their presence. Traffic managers say that the convention business alone during 1915 will bring not thousands, but hundreds of thousands to this State and the influx will be composed of persons who have money to spend and who may become permanent and valuable residents of the commonwealth.

Not only will Central California benefit by the Panama-Pacific Exposition, but the entire coast will reap rewards. The fair is so international in its character that it is bound to make a worldwide impression and this would, of course, redound to the credit of the coast. The Lewis & Clark Exposition of Portland, Oregon, and the Alaska-Yukon Exposition of Seattle did all of the coast cities a vast amount of good. Co-operative and sincere endeavor did much for both of them. Slurs and cheap innuendo might have made of both failures.

One of the greatest stumbling blocks in the way of Central California progress has been its lack of cohesiveness. An empire in itself, it is full of commercial and social revolutionists who are determined to divide its domain into factions. This part of the State can never get anywhere with such a spirit of civil strife extant. Would it not be well for all of us to put our shoulder to the wheel for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, smother discord and work as one for the advancement of this part of the State, that needs only a little encouragement and sensible, concrete direction to double and treble its wealth?

The editor of the Richmond Record-Herald laments thus over the high cost of living: "The hens are on strike and eggs are selling in eastern cities for 75 cents a dozen. At this rate there will be mighty little nog for the holidays." Why should our loco-foco contemporary complain? We are living under a Democratic tariff, and a Bourbon ought to be able to take his whisky straight. Eggs should be reserved for the breakfast table, not spoiled by mixing them with whisky.

Dog days will be here when the high price of muzzles cures the rabies.

One cannot expect to lower the cost of eggs until the hens agree to do no other duty than warming up door knobs.

Corn From Argentina.

Not long ago a ship from Belfast, Ireland, brought a cargo of corn to Montreal. Shipping corn from Ireland to America, the greatest corn-growing country on earth, sounds very much like a joke; but it is a fact. Irish farmers have taken to growing corn, and are making a success of the business. The corn crop in this country is short this year, and Ireland is sending some of her surplus over here.

Shipping corn to Kansas is very much like shipping coals to Newcastle. But we have sent coals to Newcastle before now, and Argentina is sending corn to Kansas. The Galveston News of November 26th chronicles the arrival at that port of a ship from Buenos Ayres with a cargo of corn. Galveston is a grain shipping port. This corn was consigned to a Wichita Falls company. It will be used to fatten cattle.

This is the second cargo of corn that has arrived at Galveston from Argentina this year. The government is taking an active interest in this novel grain movement, for two agents of the Department of Agriculture were on hand to inspect the quality of the grain and how it was packed. They found the quality of the grain equal to the average of American grown corn.

As we are bringing butter from New Zealand, beef from Australia and Argentina, we might as well ship corn, too. Our potato crop is short this year, and Ireland wants to send us potatoes, but the Agricultural Department says nay, asserting that the Irish potatoes are infected with disease and bugs which we desire to keep out of the country.

Population in the United States has increased at a much faster rate than agriculture has developed. Consumption is running ahead of production, and in consequence we are reaching out abroad to supply home deficiencies. Nevertheless, this country is exporting beef, butter and corn, and even exports potatoes to Canada and the West Indies. Trade movements are somewhat very perplexing to those not engaged in commerce.

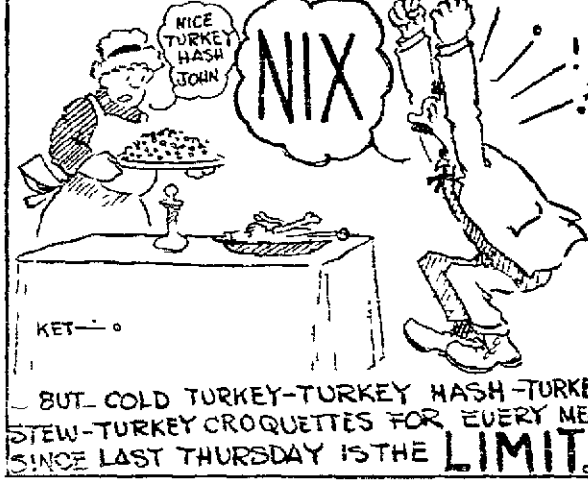

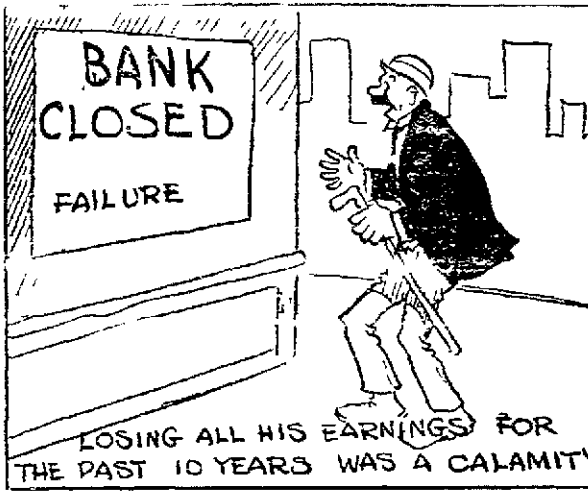

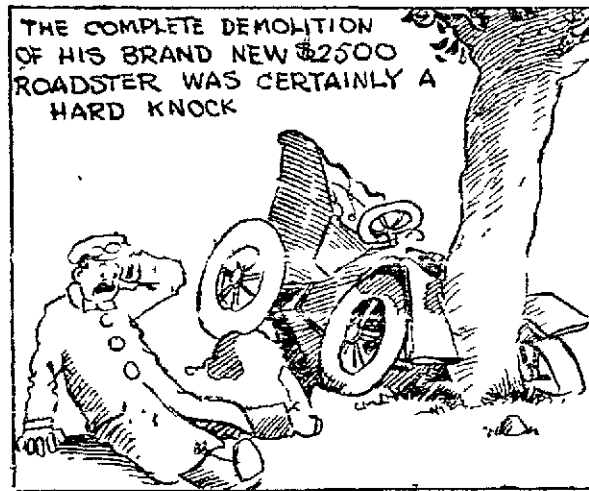

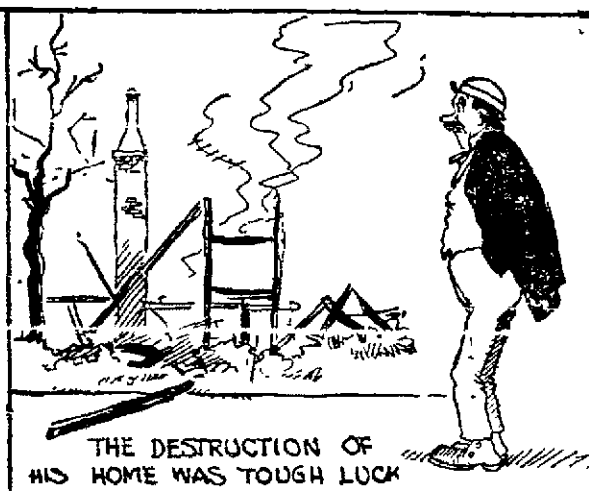

President Wilson has driven the last nail into Huerta's political coffin and all that is left to watch for is the funeral.

We have a "Billion Dollar Congress" again. Yes, but our population is increasing and so are our expenses.

Those who love the scenery, but they would have a hard time saving a thirsty city.

In the pictorial magazines it is no longer "the man with the gun" who has the first artistic place; it's the lady with the

HOW IS IT WITH YOU?

S. P. WOULD RAISE FARE RATE TO HAVENSCOURT

Asking that they be permitted to raise the monthly commutation rate between Oakland and Havenscourt from $2.50 to $3.00, and establish a rate of 6 cents from West Oakland to Havenscourt, and 15 cents from the same point to Nineteenth avenue, the Southern Pacific has filed papers with the Railroad Commission in the matter. It desires to increase the commutation fare from San Francisco to Havenscourt from $4.75 to $5.00. The application follows the recent dispute over the Havenscourt interests and the railroad, when the former bartered the Southern Pacific electric tracks across a Havenscourt right of way. The matter will be taken up by the commission on evidence submitted, both contending parties agreeing to a judicial settlement of the dispute.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The Bellman "Gopher" team entered the day this afternoon to enter contest with the Olympic Club at Central Park. The game is to decide the athletic championship of the coast. The team is as follows: M. Sullivan, E. Ransome and M. Oliver, center; Pat Oliver and Alken, tackles; Warren Olney and Joe Rache, ends; McPike, quarter back; Edwards and Robinson, half backs, and Felton Taylor, captain and full back. Market Inspector F. V. Pierce and Sanitary Inspector Smith created havoc this morning in the Free Market at Fifth and Clay streets. Dr. Pierce entered yesterday upon the discharge of his duties and for the first time in its history Oakland had a market inspector. This morning Dr. Pierce found twenty-seven ducks that were unfit for human use, as well as one huge jack rabbit. Dr. Pierce found nothing else that was bad enough to condemn the market. Those in the party were: United States Senator Perkins, Congressman Cammeltt, Warren B. English, Mayor Pardee, Professor Le Conte, first assistant to Colonel Mendell of the corps of engineers in charge of the work, H. Krusi, Elson F. Adams, J. R. Lard of Los Angeles, W. H. High of the Union National Bank, Dr. McLean and Stanley Stearnson of Alameda, J. P. Taylor and M. J. Keller, representing the Board of Trade of the city. Jim Ryan of Australia and Young Mitchell, the Pacific Coast champion, had an eight round scrap at the Oakland Theater last night. It was a very lively go and it would not have taken long for somebody to be knocked out if the police had not interfered.

A Generation of Advertising

The first generation of American advertising is just drawing to a close. The history of our national publicity has practically all been written since 1883.

Within that period has come the development of speedy and thorough transportation, making possible national mediums and national markets. The rise of low-priced publications, the growth of gigantic circulations, the creation of immense industrial plants, the standardization of business methods, have followed naturally. And in that time have been born thousands of great merchandisers.

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL was founded in November, 1883, and became the pioneer of modern periodical publishing, reaching a present circulation of nearly a million and three-quarters. THE SATURDAY EVENING POST, purchased by us in 1897, has, with its more than two million, set what is thus far the high-water mark of circulation. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, purchased in 1911, has already attracted a quarter million of the modern intelligent farmers. And two months ago was launched THE CRITERION OF FASHION, a new kind of dress publication.

Thus the history of The Curtis Publishing Company is coincident with the history of modern advertising itself.

Here is a background of 30 years of experience against which to view, in correct perspective, the selling problem of each client of today. There are 150 people in our Advertising Department. By constant interchange of information and idea, each of our representatives is enabled to profit by the wisdom of a generation and by the specialized knowledge of his colleagues. Added to this is the special service made possible by an elaborate statistical bureau, an expert division of commercial research, a careful censorship, a skilled organization for the proper handling of the problems of copy, layout and typography.

This service typifies the second generation of advertising, the era of precise and careful study of the science of selling, both by printers' ink and word-of-mouth.

CONVICTED MAYOR RELEASED ON BOND

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Dec. 2.—Roy Montgomery, mayor of Gillette, Wyoming, and Democratic State Committeeman from Campbell county, who was convicted of "white slavery" in the United States District Court here yesterday, was released last night on $5000 bond. The bail was signed by prominent citizens of the State, pending argument for a new trial, which will be held Saturday. Sentence was suspended by Judge Riner until argument on the motion for a new trial can be heard.

WHY THE KAISER PUT BAN ON TANGO

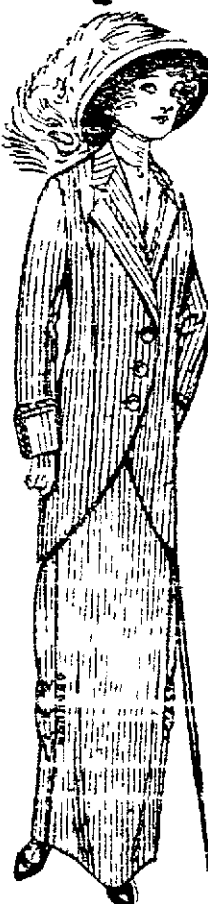

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent says it has been learned that the reason for the Kaiser's ban on the tango was his discovery that Crown Princess Cecilia was taking lessons in the tango, on a stage and other last night on $5000 bond. The bail was signed by prominent citizens of the State, pending argument for a new trial, which will be held Saturday. Sentence was suspended by Judge Riner until argument on the motion for a new trial can be heard.

POLICEMAN FIRED AT IN DARK

Bullet Passed Close to Special Officer's Ear

Shooter May Have Attempted Robbery

What the police believe to have been a deliberate attempt to murder Special Police Officer William Manning, following his participation in a hunt for a hold-up man, occurred at 3 o'clock this morning, when Manning was fired at as he stood at Agua Vista and Rosedale avenues in the neighborhood of the city.

The man who fired at Manning is thought to be the same that awakened Harvey Hall, 2545 Harrington street, shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. Hall was asleep in a tent at the rear of his father's home. He was awakened by the glare of an electric torch in his face. He saw a tall, masked man standing over him, a revolver in his right hand.

Hall did not obey the highwayman's admonition to stay where he was and say nothing, but jumped from his cot and grabbed a revolver which he had under his pillow. The robber took to his heels with Hall in close pursuit. The youth shouted to the fleeing man to stop, firing three shots at him. The thief disappeared over a high board fence.

Hall aroused other members of the family, and the Melrose police were notified. Lieutenant Fred Schroeder, Special William and Patrolman Andrews rushed to the Hall house in the police automobile. They made a futile search about the neighborhood.

An hour later, as Manning stood at Rosedale and Agua Vista avenues, which is a short distance from the Hall home, he heard a bullet whistle by his ear and the report of a revolver. The shot had been fired from behind, and by the time Manning turned about no one was in sight. He made careful search of the neighborhood, but did not come across his assailant.

Accused Medical Specialist Missing

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Spencer L. Higgins, one of the physicians whom the State Medical board is prosecuting, has not been seen since he was arrested against him, issued yesterday. It is not known whether or not he has left the city, but he has been heard of in San Francisco, but this could not be confirmed. Several of these taken into custody in connection with the conspiracy appeared in the police court today.

BEQUEATHS HIS ESTATE TO FELLOW CLERGYMAN

Bequeathing a small estate in its entirety to Father F. Battisti of Centerville, the will of the late Father Dominguez Duarte Govea, of the Holy Ghost parish at Centerville, was filed for probate today, together with petition of Father Battisti for letters testamentary. Father Govea died on November 20 last in Oakland. The will was drawn on November 5. The estate consists of cash amounting to $100.

"I desire that my body be buried with as little ostentation as possible and that the coffin or casket do not cost over $100, and that no eulogy be preached over my body," was the first clause in the will, which was brief.

"I desire to acknowledge and testify to my affection for the people of Holy Ghost parish who have been my friends and associates for nearly thirty years, and ask for their prayers," was another clause in the will.

Don't Be Misled if You Have Lung Trouble

If you have Lung Trouble, do not be misled by reports of cures of specific medicines to relieve that affection. No specific has as yet been found. Eckman's Alternative, however, is a medicine for throat and lung trouble which has been successfully used in many cases. If you are sick, it might be wise for you to investigate its merits and its use may be of lasting benefit to you. Head of this case:

333 Seventh Ave., New York.
"Gentlemen: Five years ago last August I was taken to St. Francis Hospital to be treated for Bronchitis and congested lungs. After several weeks' treatment I was advised by the doctor to go to a course of rest and rest, but could not be admitted because the doctor at the hospital, after a thorough examination, declared my case Lung Trouble, and gave me a certificate to that effect. I showed the certificate to Father Stark, and he advised me to take Eckman's Alternative. I took the Alternative faithfully as directed, and soon found myself free from my throat and lung trouble, and gradually got better. I have not taken the Alternative now for two years, and can truthfully say I am well, I feel better and am stronger than before my sickness."

Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be the most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stomach Colds and in upbuilding the system. Containing no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Sold by The Owl Drug Co. and leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.

INCINERATOR FOR GARBAGE WANTED

Health Board to Make Recommendation to Oakland City Council.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Recommendation to be made to the city council by the health board that a garbage incinerator be established in this city. The members of the health board discussed the matter last night at their regular monthly meeting, following a talk by J. C. Briggs, representing a Minneapolis company which manufactures incinerators. The board did not recommend the plant represented by Briggs, but will suggest to the city council that the garbage be disposed of by incineration.

The board also recommended to the council that the dumping of garbage near the bridge at Beach street be stopped. It is claimed that the practice is a nuisance and dangerous to the residents in the vicinity.

Dr. Crittenden and Joseph I. Sedgely were appointed as a committee to meet with the finance committee of the city council and discuss the proposed increase in the salary of Veterinary and Food Inspector Tom Carpenter from $100 to $125. The board recently recommended such action, but the council frowned upon it, claiming that the increase was not provided in the annual budget and should therefore not be allowed. The committee will endeavor to find a means of increasing the salary.

City Chemist Henry Alves, who has been appointed chemist of the United States Customs House Service, tendered his resignation, and Walter C. Leigh was appointed to the vacancy. The position carries a salary of $50 a month.

Harold Carpenter resigned as deputy food inspector and Melville Hargraving was given the position. The salary of the office is $10 a month.

A letter will be sent to Police Judge R. B. Tappan, requesting him to issue warrants for the arrest of Antonio Santos and C. H. Siddell on charges of violating the milk ordinance.

FALCON'S QUEER PLEA.

SAYS COSTA RICANS FEAR UNITED STATES

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—J. H. Bartley, graduate of the University of California in the class of 1905, and Mrs. Bartley have returned to this city from Central America, where Bartley has been engaged in business in Costa Rica. He declares that Costa Ricans fear the United States and hates this country for building the canal. Regarding isthmian affairs, he says:

"The people of Central America consider the building of the canal by the United States a steal. They feel that it is a grab from Columbia and harbor the greatest resentment against the Americans for bringing the great work to a successful completion."

While the people like the Americans individually, they hate and at the same time fear them collectively. They fear the power of the United States and are in terror that the government will intervene in Mexico. Conditions as a whole are not prosperous in the Southern countries. The people there blame Wall Street for most of their troubles."

DESOPDENT PATIENT TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Following an extended illness, from which he had become despondent, Louis Berlier, an aged glove-maker, ended his life last night at his home, 352 Park street. Berlier sent a bullet crashing through his brain some time yesterday afternoon and died instantly. His body was found last evening by his daughter, Miss Pauline Berlier, when she arrived home from San Francisco, where she is employed as a stenographer.

Berlier and his daughter had been residing alone since Mrs. Berlier passed away several years ago. Deceased was a native of France and 60 years of age. He had resided in Alameda about eight years and in California about 20 years. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the Alameda branch of the Albert Brown Undertaking company.

YULETIDE APPEAL FOR SETTLEMENT

East Oakland Children Worthy Cause of Call for Christmas Donations.

If the good people of this city contribute gifts to the East Oakland Settlement, the youngsters will have a happy Christmas this year. The managers of the settlement have stated that much will depend upon the generous folk of this community whether the children enjoy the yuletide festival or not. The officers and members of the institution, together with private individuals, whose funds have supported that settlement for many years and are now appealing to the public for a donation of Christmas toys and useful articles for the boys and girls of the cotton mill district of East Oakland.

There is an urgent need for sewing machines, basketballs, games and tennis balls. At present the girls of the domestic science classes are compelled to do all their sewing without the aid of machines, which would prove a valuable acquisition to the settlement.

Nine teachers have given their services gratuitously to the settlement, where classes and clubs for the betterment of the boys and girls as well as the young men and women of the cotton mill colony of East Oakland are in full swing.

All the classes and societies are well attended and are very popular. There are about 250 junior and senior folk who take advantage of the educational work in the settlement. Every afternoon and evening the rooms are filled with children, who are anxious to learn the various branches that are taught in that institution.

THE TRIBUNE will receive subscriptions for the East Oakland Settlement.

PROF. STUBENRAUCH TO RETURN TO BERKELEY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Dec. 2.—The faculty of the department of agriculture of the university will be materially strengthened next fall by the return of Dr. Arnold V. Stubenrauch, graduate of this university in the class of 1906 and later in charge of the office of field investigation in pomology of the United States Department of Agriculture. He will return to the university as professor of pomology.

Professor Stubenrauch is a recognized authority in this country on the problems of gathering, storing and marketing fruits. As a student in the university he was secretary to Professor E. W. Hilgard, then dean of the agricultural college. He took a master's degree at Cornell and was thereafter successively in the faculties of the University of Illinois and the University of California.

BONNHIEB DEBATEES TO MEET TOMORROW

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Dec. 2.—The annual Bonnhieb discussion prize will be awarded as a result of the discussion to be held tomorrow evening at the Philosophy Building, in which the participants will be the winners in the Bonnhieb upper division dissertation contest, recently finished, who were Miss Margaret Allicker, W. G. Marvin, E. P. Kaiser and A. M. Herick. The prize offered is $100. The judges will be E. J. Thurston and J. D. Galloway of San Francisco and Ernest S. Page of Berkeley. The question for discussion is "The Architect's Duty to His Art and to Society." W. G. Marvin won last year's contest.

WIDOW ABRAMOWSKY DIES IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Christine Abramowsky, widow of Christian Abramowsky, died last night in this city. She was a sister of the late John A. C. Reimers. Deceased was 76 years of age and a native of Germany. Abramowsky has been residing at 1307 Pacific avenue. The remains will be sent to Jackson, Ariz. for county, where deceased formerly resided.

LARGE JEWELRY CONCERN TO HOLD LOCAL SALE

The United Import Company, for many years one of the largest wholesale jobbers of jewelry on the Pacific Coast, have opened a store in Oakland and announced a sacrifice sale of jewelry at positively wholesale prices and less.

The store is located at 1104 Washington street, right in the midst of a popular and busy shopping district, and this unusual opportunity presented to the people of Oakland will be one they will gladly take advantage of.

The sacrifice sale comes at an opportune and appropriate time of the year, when the eager Christmas shoppers have a keen eye for bargains and particularly in the jewelry line.

Every piece of jewelry in the store must be disposed of as the necessity for cash is pressing and immediate.

BUSINESS IS SPLENDID

At Foreman & Clark's
Upstairs Clothing Store

There is only one thing in the wide, wide world that makes business good at Foreman & Clark's—because we sell $25 Suits and Overcoats at FIFTEEN DOLLARS. We are busy as we possibly can be right now, when business is poor with the other folks.

THIS IS A STORE OF HUSTLE AND BUSTLE

There's a vim and a go and a push and a strife about the whole Foreman & Clark organization that makes the blood tingle in every good red-blooded American's veins whenever he sets foot in one of our big second-floor clothing stores (at either Oakland, Los Angeles or San Diego). There's a lot of pleasure in knowing that business is so good with us not because of "sensational sacrifice" advertising, not because of inflated values and "reduced" prices, not because of tremendously attractive show windows decorated up to the queen's taste and the trimmer's limit, but because of values and service and personality and reputation and square dealing with the public ever since we first started.

DECEMBER WILL BE A HUMMER WITH US

We know it. We're absolutely ready to bank on it. Foreman & Clark's has been the busiest store in town right along. We sell more Men's Suits at one price than any other two stores in the entire country.

PUBLISHER MARKS SUED FOR DIVORCE

Wife Alleges He Was on Terms of Intimacy With Nurse Named "Edna."

Mildred Marks began divorce proceedings against Alfred Marks, proprietor of the State Directory and publisher of the Mercantile Guide, because, as she says, he has during the past year been on terms of great intimacy with a certain woman friend of the parties.

The woman referred to is a professional nurse and is mentioned in the records as "Edna" only. The wife complains that the husband, while refusing to take her even to the theater, has frequently entertained Edna at "lavish" dinners at various cafes and has carried on a lively correspondence with her through letters and by telephone.

PLEADINGS QUOTE LETTER

A letter said to have been addressed to Marks by Edna is quoted in the pleadings to the following effect:

"Dear Al: Just these few lines to let you know that I will not be able to come over Thursday night. Will write you at the office. Am on duty tonight and will have to make this short. Am addressing this at the house, as I know you will not be at the office. Can you ring me up tomorrow and let me know that you received this and will await answer. Love and kisses to you, dear, and don't worry. Yours ever, EDNA."

Mrs. Marks says that she herself has been the recipient of letters from Edna, and she makes particular reference to one written November 26, 1913, from Oakland, which reads in part as follows:

OFFERED HOUSEKEEPING POSITION

"Dear Millie: Mr. Marks asked if I have any objection to keeping house for him, as he was on the lookout for some reliable person to keep house for him, but was afraid to get any stranger after his experience. He found the house lonesome and it was hard to keep it clean and attend to his business. I write to you as I have accepted, although the wages he offered me are very much less than I want to know from you if Mr. Marks is hard to please and if he is particular about the way his food is cooked, as I should like to know about this and his habits before I take charge of his home. You know this is a purely business proposition. Now, Millie, I want your advice. I don't want anybody to know of my business. You understand, don't you?"

"With love to you, your sincere friend, EDNA."

This letter is said to have been written to the wife after she had found it impossible to continue living with the defendant at the family home, 1751 Park street.

Mrs. Marks gave her husband's interest in the Mercantile Guide is worth $500 a month and that his State Directory business is worth $10,000. She asks $200 a month for herself and $50 a month for the support of her 10-year-old child. She is represented by Attorney Ernest Faguel.

Other allegations against Marks are that he beat his wife and called her harsh names. The parties were married November 12, 1892. Mrs. Marks is living at the Cornelia apartments.

FIVE HUNDRED ARRESTS IN SPEEDING CHUSAE

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Nearly 500 automobile drivers, both professional chauffeurs and owners of cars, including several women, were in police courts yesterday in response to a crusade by the city authorities against speeding in the streets. In November a new monthly record of automobile accident fatalities was established. Fines of $50 or $125, amounting to $2500, were collected. More than 1000 refused to pay. They were sent to jail from one to five days, among them being Theodore Roosevelt, a relative of the collector.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

Orators Trying Out for Capwell Cup Contest

Four boy orators of the Oakland High School qualified yesterday afternoon at the preliminary tryouts for the Capwell Oratorical Cup Contest, which will be held Tuesday afternoon, December 9, in Chabot Hall. They are Edwin Meese, a senior, who will speak upon "New Patriotism"; Robert Steep, a senior, "Foreign Emigration"; Harry Shary, a junior, "National Defense"; and Fletcher Pence, a junior, "What Oakland Offers Its Young Men." The judges at the tryouts represented the faculty, Miss A. G. Fraser, Miss C. Soule, Miss E. Schneider and J. P. Sutton.

"BEAN SUPPERS" PROVE SUCCESSFUL AFFAIRS

The "bean suppers" have again become an interesting part of the social activities of the boys of the Young Men's Christian Association. The youths of the Alameda, Oakland, John C. Fremont and Manual Training and Commercial High Schools are now conducting the repasts every Thursday evening, and the meal is followed by round-table discussions upon high school affairs. The talks are led by senior workers. The leaders at next Thursday's meeting are: T. E. Watt, Oakland High School; W. H. Brown, Manual Training and Commercial High School; T. S. Caldwell, Alameda High School; and J. B. Nash, John C. Fremont High School.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunate, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once. Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Opton; fill a two-ounce bottle with water and drop in one Opton tablet. With this harmless liquid solution bathe the eyes two to four times daily and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this free prescription.

Get this prescription filled and use it, you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Those hands who are blind or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time. Save your eyes before it is too late! Do not become one of these victims of neglect. Eye-glasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.

Child Is Dancer Work Sensation

HELEN MACGREGOR

During the dances which have been planned by the younger set, Helen Macgregor, a graceful juvenile artist, will be among the leading performers. In her imported Scottish costumes and her original Scottish dances, she has already created a sensation and her versatility has won for her many laurels among the amateurs as well as the professionals. Often she appeared at private and public entertainments given during the spring season.

The talented child is said to be the youngest impersonator of the Scottish dances in California. She has revived many of the old-time steps, which have given distinction to her repertoire of quaint dances.

Folk Dancing Will Be Program at Bushrod

Folk dancing will be one of the attractions at the entertainment to be given by the Junior girls of the Bushrod Park Playground, Friday evening, December 5, in the assembly hall of the Washington School. The girls will present the dances under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Clow, who is in charge of the girls' division of the playground. Rehearsals for the performance are now in full swing and the children have shown much aptitude for the dances.

SOCCER FOOTBALL TEAMS WILL START CONTESTS

The baseball and basketball season has closed for the boys of Mosswood Park Playground, according to an announcement made by Director O'Mara of the boys' division of that playground. The games will be replaced by soccer football, which will commence in all the playgrounds next Saturday afternoon.

There are now plans for establishing all-star basketball teams of 110, 120 and 130 pounds in all playgrounds, preparatory to entering the Pacific Athletic Association championship, which will commence next February.

BRITISH COLUMBIA TO FIGHT HINDU PLAGUE

VANCOUVER, B. C., Dec. 2.—H. H. Stevens, Vancouver's parliamentary representative returned from Ottawa yesterday with the announcement that the federal government is considering legislation to deal with the Hindu plague in British Columbia. Hitherto Hindus were barred from Canada under a regulation compelling them to travel by direct steamer from India, they being until a few months ago, no such service in existence.

JAPANESE CRUISER TO COAL AT HONOLULU

U. S. ARMY ORDERS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Orders of November 19 relating to first Lieutenant Henry B. Claggett, 23rd Infantry, is revoked.

Colonel James Atkins, 20th Infantry, is relieved from assignment to that regiment.

Colonel Charles R. Noyes, Infantry, unassigned, is assigned to the 24th Infantry.

LINEN TABLE CLOTHS BANISHED BY GLASS

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Art has decreed that the linen table covers, immaculate as the fabric may be, must go. It is to be relegated to the past with other obsolete dinner table decorations and fixtures and the place will be taken by a beveled plate of heavy glass, according to James Woods, manager of the St. Francis.

As a final step in this innovation Mrs. Henry T. Scott and a number of others of the select peninsula set experimented at their palatial homes at teas and private dinners. Society gave its approval and the directors of the St. Francis, led by Henry E. Scott, fell in line.

CREATES POWER SITE RESERVE ON COLORADO

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—An order was issued yesterday by Secretary Lane with the President's approval, creating a power site reserve in Boulder Canyon on the Colorado river, 20 miles east of Las Vegas, Nevada. It is expected the construction will develop 4000 horsepower at a minimum of expense.

HOLD-UP EFFORT NOT LUCRATIVE

Pair Hold Up F. Miller, But Get Little for Their Trouble.

F. Miller, 268 Fourth street, was held up and robbed about 8 o'clock this morning at Fourth and Harrison streets, while he was on his way to work. The robbers obtained a small sum in change and some tobacco. It was thought they were hobo-like, as they were roughly dressed and had the appearance of tramps. They did not bear a similarity to the pair of bandits, the "tall and short" men, who have been operating in Oakland for the past month and who have committed a half a dozen holdups.

Miller was walking down the street before daylight when two men leaped out at him at the corner of Fourth and Harrison streets. Both were masked with red bandana handkerchiefs. The taller of the two carried a large, blue-

After three up his hands at the corner of the main street, the gun was allowed himself to be searched. They obtained 20 cents and some tobacco. Miller hastened to report the robbery to the police and a search was made. He described both men as being roughly dressed. The younger was slender, about 5 feet 5 inches in height, and wore a dark suit of clothes. The older was a heavily built man, feet 10 inches in height and weighing 225 pounds. He

How to Cure Rheumatism
Prominent Doctor's Best Prescription Easily Mixed at Home.

This simple and harmless formula has worked wonders for all who have tried it, quickly relieving chronic and acute rheumatism and backache. "From your drugstore get one ounce of Toris compound (in original sealed package) and one ounce of syrup of Sarsaparilla compound. Take these two ingredients home and put them in a half pint of good whiskey. Shake the bottle and take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bed-time." Good results come after the first few doses. If your drugstore does not have Toris compound in stock he will get it for you in a few hours from his wholesale house. Don't be influenced to take a patent medicine instead of this. Insist on having the genuine Toris compound in the original, one-ounce, sealed, yellow package. This was published here last winter and hundreds of the worst cases were cured by it in a short time. Published by the Globe Pharmaceutical Laboratories of Chicago.

Cupid Lurked in the Forest Miss M. Winder to Wed

MISS MARGARET WINDER, WHOSE ROMANCE HAS ATMOSPHERE OF COLORADO'S PINE-CLAD FORESTS.

BERKELEY, Dec. 1.—Under the waving pines of a Colorado forest three years ago began the romance which is to culminate Thursday in the wedding of Miss Margaret Winder of Berkeley and Arthur J. Upson of Colorado. In 1910 Upson and Miss Winder met at Fraser, Colo., where the former's father has a summer home.

The home is at the verge of the Arapahoe forest reserve of the United States, of which young Upson is federal examiner. Miss Winder was a guest at a Fraser summer resort and there met Upson. She became immediately interested in his work, accompanying him and his family in tours of the neighboring portions of the reserve. Their friendship ripened soon into a lasting affection, which has since led to their engagement.

The young couple intend making their home in Colorado following their marriage. Miss Winder resides in this city at 2223 Dwight way, and is prominently known in musical circles here. Upson was graduated with the 1910 class at the University of Nebraska, where he was a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

"MEXICAN PETE" DENIES MAYHEM DURING FIGHT

Denying that he had bitten off the ear of Eric Nelson during a fight in the sixth street "lockup" several weeks ago, Pedro Sanchez, alias "Mexican Pete," declared while awaiting his appearance in the superior court this morning that Nelson lost his auditory appendage through being struck over the head by the club of a police officer who had attempted to separate them. Sanchez is charged with mayhem.

After Nelson was separated from his ear the ear could not be found and it was intimated by the police that Sanchez had swallowed it. Sanchez was later taken to the emergency hospital following the fight.

Sending him to one time prize fighter, having mixed it with Jim Jeffries, Jack Johnson, Tom Sharkey and Joe Choynick, he fought Jeffries 14 years ago and was knocked out in the third round. Later he fought Jack Johnson at Victor, Colorado, to a draw. That was eight years ago, he said. His Sharkey engagement took place at Grapple Creek a year later.

Judge Denshire appointed Attorney Frank Mitchell to defend him.

BOMBS ARE DROPPED
UPON MOORISH CAMP

TETUAN, Morocco, Dec. 2.—A daring aeroplane reconnaissance was carried out yesterday by Prince Alfonso, a cousin of the King of Spain. Accompanied by Colonel Viven, he flew from Tetuan to Arzila, over a route infested by Moors. The two aviators hovered for some time over the enemy's position, their aeroplane meanwhile being a target for sharpshooters. The aviators several times had narrow escapes. They replied to the fusillade by dropping bombs into the Moors' encampment.

See Students Writing It

At Heald's Business College
San Pablo and 16th, Oakland

We are teaching "The Machine Way" in Shorthand to an intensely interested class. And we want you to see these students write on this machine. "The Machine Way in Shorthand" is called Stenotype, and is written on a machine called the Stenotype. The Stenotype is one of the Four Great Machines that are saving the most time today in business.

You have seen its method advertised in the great national magazines. Now come and see, in an actual demonstration, what "Machine Shorthand" is and what it is doing. See what it enables the average young man and woman to do in stenography today.

The STENO TYPE
The Fastest Writing Machine in the World

Writes Plain English Spelling

Here is a system that enables you to write "shorthand" with great speed, accuracy and ease.

For Stenotypy is simply plain English spelling with the silent letters dropped. The Stenotype writes it in plain alphabet type—the kind you learned when you first went to school.

Not one of the usual shorthand characters is used.

So there is only a little to learn about Stenotypy that you don't already know. Learning to write it is mostly a case of learning to write on this simple machine, which embodies only 22 plainly stamped keys.

Come see the Stenotype before you enroll anywhere else. We teach both the "Machine Way" and the "Hand Way" in Shorthand. Come decide which you want to take.

Better Salaries

There are today in business thousands of successful Stenotypists. They are accurate writers and unusually fast, for this machine permits accuracy and speed with ease. And their services, therefore, command higher salaries than are usually paid for stenographic work.

Students of Stenotypy upon graduation are getting a premium price for their services. Because they enter business with a degree of efficiency that is not attained by the ordinary beginner.

Millions of Business Men Now Know

The Stenotype and Stenotypy are now being advertised to millions of business men every month.

Soon every business man who hires stenographers will know what Stenotypists can do.

He will know of these legible Stenotype notes which can be transcribed by any Stenotypist as accurately as by the one who wrote them—notes which are read as easily a year after they were written as the day they were taken down.

315 Colleges
Are Teaching Stenotypy

Stenotypy is being taught today in 315 business colleges in every important city in the United States.

Thousands of students, having investigated it, are now learning to take dictation this way.

We are teaching Stenotypy because its principle is fundamentally sound and right—because W. S. Ireland, the inventor, an expert Court Reporter, spent nine years in perfecting it before he announced it—and because the Stenotype and Stenotypists have gained a permanent place in business.

Come See It Today

Call at our offices today and we will demonstrate Stenotypy and the Stenotype.

We will show you why so many students are studying this system. We will show you how you can write on this machine.

You are not obligated in asking a demonstration. Bring your mother or father with you if you wish.

You will see in this system of taking dictation some great possibilities for a good start in business and future rapid advancement.

So come see the Stenotype. Learn for yourself why it means higher efficiency and better salaries.

NERVOUS CHILDREN
By LILLIAN RUSSELL

WHEN a mother frightens a child with the threat that the policeman will take it away if it is not obedient, or that the bad man will steal it if it does not go to sleep, she does not realize that she is planting fear in the heart of her offspring.

Physicians who treat nervous diseases declare that there is no more important task in the disease of children. They say that nervousness arises from a poor quality of body, meaning a body poorly nourished, or with some portion destroyed, or with various disorders resulting from unfortunate management of a child.

The doctor was lenient when he called deliberate cowardice mismanagement. For a mother is cowardly who will relieve her own anxiety by quieting a child with the thoughts of fear.

The nervous system regulates both the bodily nutrition and activity, and it is through the nervous system that we come in contact with our fellow beings.

There are so many ways to make children obedient and good if mothers would only take the time to work them out, study the children and find out what they want to do.

I can remember when all I wanted as a reward for practicing the piano for an hour was a silver thimble all my own. I am sure that my mother kept me six months practicing hard for that 25-cent thimble. But she kept her promise and gave it to me.

Remember: Always keep your promises to children. They register a promise and build all sorts of fairy castles around it and resent you if you forget.

Answers to Queries

HELEN C.—Some people haven't the half moons on the finger nails and if they will not show with constant and proper manicuring there is nothing that will make them come up. Manicure your nails faithfully once a week and each morning after washing the hands, while the cuticle is still soft, wrap a piece of cotton around the large end of the finger and stick and gently push back the cuticle. This is the only thing that will make the half moons show.

V. V.—Salt baths are good for plumpy shoulders. When taking a warm tub bath add a couple of handfuls of salt to the water. After bathing rub yourself thoroughly all over with a rough bath towel so as to get your blood in circulation. Rub your body with the towel until it is red and tingling. Do not eat sweet foods, pastries or greasy foods. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall gladly send you a formula for a salve for pimples.

DISGUSTED—The unsweetened juice of a lemon is beneficial for the liver. A teaspoon of olive oil, taken half an hour before each meal, if you can stand it, is also good. Both the lemon juice and the olive oil will make the liver more active, and in time the liver spots will disappear. If you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you a formula for reducing flesh.

NEEDLE IN BODY OF GIRL FOR FIVE YEARS

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—After suffering five years from pains in her stomach that puzzled many physicians, 10-year-old Edna Hulse is cured. The pains were caused by a needle that had slipped down her throat.

Since the start of her pains Edna had swallowed many home remedies and the medicines of numerous doctors. Her parents took her recently to a hospital, and surgeons there turned X-rays on her stomach, and the resultant plate showed a needle. They operated and removed the bit of steel.

WOMAN ATTACKED IN SHOP AND ROBBED

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Into throngs of Fifth avenue shoppers and home-goers at Fortysth street, shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, hysterical and screaming, Mrs. Lillian M. Crowe, manager of an antique shop at No. 562 Fifth avenue, rushed with blood streaming from numerous cuts and bruises on her face and neck. She ran into the arms of a traffic policeman and cried: "I have been robbed in the store."

Mrs. Crowe said a man choked her and took a diamond ring valued at $400, a wedding ring, and two gold bracelets, and also robbed the cash drawer of $25.

Miss Helen Bon is to give a dinner December 4 at the Hotel Oakland, having as her guest of honor Miss Helen Nicol, the pretty fiancée of Lieutenant Leroy Nielson, U. S. Navy. Covers will be laid for sixteen of the young friends of Miss Nicol. An informal dance will follow the dinner. The wedding of Miss Nicol and Nielson will take place in January.

J. DUNLOP SMITH TO BE BROUGHT TO TRIAL.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Witnesses from all parts of the country have been subpoenaed to appear in the federal court for the trial of James Dunlop Smith, former president of the Radio Telephone Company and one of the financial Agency Company, charged with using the mails to defraud investors in the stock of the first-named company and its subsidiaries.

Smith was indicted in March, 1912, with Lee E. Forest, Samuel E. Darby and Elmer E. Burlingame. The indictments charged that Smith and the other defendants misrepresented financial conditions of the radio telephone Company, and further that they made false representations when they stated that the wireless apparatus controlled by them had been perfected so that it would be possible to distribute grand opera music from a transmitter on the Metropolitan opera house stage to any subscriber's home in Greater New York. The fiscal Agency Company was the concern that disposed of the stock of the various companies.

Makes Perilous Ride on Cow-Catcher
Woman Is Saved by Entangled Clothes

Mrs. Fred Glennon Has Remarkable Escape From Death

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Her head hanging within a few inches of the track and her clothes miraculously entangled in the cowcatcher, holding her from death or even serious injury, Mrs. Fred Glennon rode 500 feet yesterday afternoon.

The engine, which struck the buggy Mrs. Glennon was driving, hurled her companion, Mrs. Christian Wolf, to the side of the track and fractured her skull. Her recovery is a matter of grave doubt.

The accident occurred shortly before 5 o'clock where Beach street crosses the Southern Pacific tracks, a short distance south of the Redwood City depot.

The women had been for a drive and were returning to Mrs. Wolf's residence. They say they heard no whistle or bell and were unaware of the approach of the train, the north-bound San Francisco local, due in this city at 5:30.

The engineer of the train did not put on the emergency brakes, otherwise Mrs. Glennon's terrible ride would have been of shorter duration. He explained this by saying that he thought there was but one woman in the rig, and seeing one thrown to one side, thought there was no use in stopping the train too suddenly.

When the engine stopped a crowd awaiting the train, including several of the San Mateo supervisors, ran along the tracks seeing something was wrong, and assisted in releasing Mrs. Glennon.

She showed remarkable fortitude after the accident and assured her rescuers that she was unhurt. Later she complained of a strain in her back and last night was under the care of a physician.

HATS OF WOMEN IMPEDE TRAFFIC

LONDON, Dec. 2.—London railroad and traction officials expressed official worry today when a notice was issued from the offices of the London Omnibus Company that fifteenth century headgear would interfere with street navigation. The corporation has been aroused by the appearance on the streets of hats copied from those worn in Raymond Knapp's opera, "Joan of Arc," which are fifteenth century to the limit—and French, at that. According to the company's notice there is grave danger for unsuspecting man in the peaks and angles of the headgear.

YOUNG MATRONS SCORED BY PASTOR

WATKINS, Ga., Dec. 2.—Rev. Dr. W. P. Price, pastor of the First Baptist church, in a sensational denunciation of present conditions, declared that Watkins is the worst town this side of hell, and made open charges against the little circle of young matrons who sing in his choir.

He declared that there are young matrons in his choir who have five or six admirers waiting for them as soon as their husbands go to work. His insinuations in this respect are causing much comment, and it is probable that he will be asked for a retraction.

ADOPTED SON OF CARSON LEAVES WIFE

RENO, Nev., Dec. 2.—Louis C. Schilling, the 80-year-old adopted son of the famous scout Kit Carson, and sole survivor of the massacre at the Alamo, now being torn down at San Antonio, Tex., got a divorce in the local courts from Joanna Schilling, now a resident of Seattle.

Schilling has lived in Reno since last May. He was a former occupant of the Soldiers' Home at Napa, Cal., and also lived in Southern California. It was there that he says his wife was cruel to him, going about with other men in a small town in which he ran a restaurant until her actions became a reproach. He formerly had a government position at HEADGEAR OF FIFTEENTH CENTURY THE STYLE IS WORRYING LONDON.

Pasadena, Cal., mother of Ernest de Koven Leffingwell, the Arctic explorer and geologist. It is learned that the faculty of Chicago University will make an effort to learn the fate of Leffingwell, who started forth with the Stefansson expedition last June, to recover the last remnants left on a previous expedition. No particular alarm for the explorer is entertained here, as there are more white men and more ships wintering on the Arctic coast of Alaska than ever before. Leffingwell was to gather material for a map and specimens for geographical societies. A searching party would be able to reach the Arctic by way of Fairbanks and Circle City.

ADMITTS BIGAMY WITH MAN NOW DEAD

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 2.—Mrs. Dora Dorey Erder Whitner pleaded guilty at Clayton, Mo., yesterday to a charge of bigamy in having married William J. Erder, a St. Louis mail clerk, who was murdered. Three years ago she was tried for the murder of Erder and acquitted. The case has been continued twelve times because of illness of the defendant. The woman was carried into court on a stretcher and sentenced to three months in jail. After her release on bond on the bigamy charge, Mrs. Whitner went to Tennessee with Dr. Loren B. Dorey, her first husband. He disappeared. She then went to Idaho and married her present husband.

AMERICAN WOMAN IS DIVORCED IN ENGLAND

LONDON, Dec. 2.—A divorce was granted today to Mrs. Ida M. French, daughter of Robert J. Wynne of Washington, D. C., former American consul-general in London and former Postmaster General, on the grounds of infidelity and cruelty on the part of her husband, Captain Hugh Ronald French, now of the Fourth Battalion (territorial) of the Yorkshire Regiment and formerly of the Scottish Dragoon Guards. The name of Marie Celeste French, a Canadian chorus girl, was mentioned.

BURNS MANUSCRIPT IS FOUND BY AMERICAN

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—The Glenriddle manuscript volumes of the poet Burns, of which track was lost after being sold to a mysterious purchaser last summer by the Athenaeum Library of Liverpool, are in the possession of John Gribbel, vice-president of the "Public Ledger." Gribbel announced at the St. Andrews dinner that recently the volumes were offered him by a dealer, and that he had bought them for the purpose of restoring them to the Scottish people. Burns recounted how Burns, between 1788 and 1791, prepared a manuscript volume containing his selected poems finished as he wanted them known to posterity and also a volume containing his manuscript letters. Since then these have passed through many hands.

GERMANY'S DIAMOND MARKET IS LIMITED

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—The Imperial Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, has issued an order that the marketing of German diamonds in 1914 shall be restricted to one million carats. The production in 1913 was approximately 1,400,000 carats.

HETCH-HETCHY SCHEME OVERHAULED AT CONFERENCE

CONVENTION DELEGATES HEAR AN INTERESTING DISCUSSION

Women to Be Complimented on the Manner in Which They Conducted Themselves During Debate on Subject

The women of the Oakland civic center had a field day at the Hotel Oakland yesterday afternoon. They had been asked to endorse the Hetch Hetchy project and they immediately called a convention and proceeded to have a debate. They tried the men out good and plenty, allowed everybody to have his say and showed a quick-witted interest in everything that was said. Manifestly they did not wish to buy a pig in the poke or endorse any proposition which they did not understand.

Mrs. Cora E. Jones, president of the Oakland center, stated the position of the women precisely when she called the gathering to order. She said:

"San Francisco has asked us to endorse the Hetch Hetchy project. When this request was made we realized for the first time how little we knew of Hetch Hetchy or the points involved in the dispute. If we were to do our duty intelligently as electors we must ascertain the facts; so this convention was called that the proponents and opponents of the Hetch Hetchy project might give us all the information at their command. This meeting is without prejudice, open-minded, and we want to hear all sides of the case."

MANY ANGLES PRESENTED.

And if they did not hear all sides they heard many sides. It developed very soon that there was more than one side to the Hetch Hetchy project; in fact, as many as four sides, with indications that there were others. It is not a simple proposition by any means, except as far as San Francisco is concerned. San Francisco wants Hetch Hetchy, but the reasons why San Francisco's wishes are opposed are diverse and in some instances conflict with each other.

There are the irrigationists, the nature lovers, and as Edward Rainey, secretary to Mayor Rolph, broadly hinted, the power companies and the large body of citizens who cannot understand why the government should give San Francisco one of the fairest beauty spots, a national park, for a reservoir site.

NOT INDISPENSABLE SOURCE.

Every statement made on either side was sharply challenged and in most places flatly contradicted. The proponents of the scheme were compelled to abandon the contention that Hetch Hetchy was an indispensable source of water supply for San Francisco. They fell back, however, on the contention that it was the cheapest and most available and had the advantage of providing a valuable power right estimated to be worth $45,000,000. All the other sources of supply were attacked as being too expensive, or being under private ownership, or being unavailable because of physical obstacles.

But this side of the question was not threshed out very thoroughly, as the debate finally degenerated to a dispute as to whether a certain engineering report had been suppressed in San Francisco to the deception of the advisory board of army engineers.

WAS REPORT SUPPRESSED?

This report was made by Engineer Bartel to Marsdon Manson, then city engineer of San Francisco, and contained a comprehensive survey of the Blue lakes and Mokelumne river as an alternative source of water supply for San Francisco. This report was not among the data submitted to the army engineer nor was it used by Engineer Freeman, who made the report on which the case of San Francisco substantially rests.

A. L. Carroll, secretary of the San Joaquin Water Problem Association, contradicted the statement of J. H. Dockweiler, consulting engineer for San Francisco and Oakland, that San Francisco only wanted to take from the Mokelumne river the water running to waste. He said San Francisco proposed to take all and above a certain quantity which was more than the unused and unusual flow, and by so doing would deprive 200,000 people in the San Joaquin valley of water for irrigation.

PLEASURE GROUND? NO.

Dr. William F. Bado, educator and member of the Sierra Club, challenged Dockweiler's statement that the Mokelumne canyon and meadows could be utilized as a pleasure ground if Hetch Hetchy were made a water reservoir. Dockweiler drew a rosy picture of Hetch Hetchy valley, with the bottom covered with water and roadways winding around it in the rocks where people could visit it and campers pitch their tents on its shore.

Dr. Bado pointed to Portland and Seattle as examples of the failure of attempts to use a reservoir site as a public park. The government, he said, had permitted Portland to use 225 square miles of a forest reserve for the Bull Run reservoir site on condition that the cherished territory should be improved and to be open to public use as a park.

CONGRESS AMENDS ACT.

Typhoid epidemic broke out and Portland appealed to congress to amend the act. Congress did so by forbidding all persons to trespass on the Bull Run reservoir reserve and imposed a fine of $500 upon any person who trespassed on the site or drove a domestic animal on it. He said Seattle, starting with the idea of using a reservoir site as a public park, had been compelled to forbid anyone to go near it. He quoted Frederick Olmstead and Brigadier General Sternberg of the medical corps of the United States army, to support the contradiction of Dockweiler that it was neither practical nor healthy to use the same territory for a public park and reservoir site.

NO LACK OF WATER.

Dr. George Derrick vigorously combatted Rainey's assertion that San Francisco had at present an insufficient supply of water. He said the trouble with San Francisco was lack of distributing facilities—not lack of water, and he asserted that if it was true that San Francisco was threatened with a water famine Hetch Hetchy was not the only place where she could get her needs supplied.

As an Oaklander he objected to the bonding scheme that lies behind the Hetch Hetchy project. He said the willingness of San Francisco to divide with us the water from Hetch Hetchy meant a willingness to divide the immense cost of installing the system. It meant, more bonds and higher taxes. Taxes are high enough, he said, in Oakland and they should be reduced instead of increased. The endorsement of this Hetch Hetchy scheme, he said, meant putting our shoulders under a huge liability, the extent of which no man could now tell.

COST UNDERESTIMATED.

This was not what he said in exact terms, but the substance of his argument, always coming back to the proposition that there were other sources of water supply than Hetch Hetchy and the cost of other projects had been very much overestimated, and the cost of Hetch Hetchy underestimated in order to make a favorable showing for the latter scheme.

And so the debate ran along until Jacob M. Blake brought up the question of the Bartel report and inferentially attacked the data upon which the Freeman report was based and the credibility of the report of the army engineer. He made out a strong case, but it had an unpleasant personal side and everybody was anxious to avoid anything disagreeable or savoring of personal reflections, so the matter frittered away into a desultory discussion that left the convention nowhere, save, perhaps, that Blake had managed to cloud with suspicion both the Freeman report and the report of the army engineers.

POINTS TO DISCREPANCIES.

Dr. Bado likewise struck the Freeman report a hard blow by pointing out that in making the comparative cost to bring the water from Hetch Hetchy and the Mokelumne river he estimated the cost of laying the cubic yard of concrete at Hetch Hetchy at $4.50, and the cost of laying a cubic yard at Blue Lakes at $9, exactly double, and he intimated that there were other discrepancies showing that the comparison was unfair and based upon different estimates of unit cost.

He also ventured the assertion that if Secretary Fisher had known last year that the Bartel report had been smothered in the city engineer's office in San Francisco he would have turned down San Francisco's application cold.

TELLS OF WATER'S VALUE.

After calling the convention to order and making a brief statement of its purpose Mrs. Jones introduced Miss Ethel Moore as presiding officer. Miss Moore, who is able to think on her feet and always talks intelligently about everything she undertakes to discuss, stated that the purpose was to give everybody a chance to express, as far as possible, their views, not only on the question of Hetch Hetchy, but the water supply in general.

A recent visit to Egypt, she said, had opened her eyes to the enormous value of water, the tremendous possibilities involved in its intelligent use. She spoke of the Assuan dam and how it had transformed thousands of acres of the arid desert into productive fields, and she intimated that the water question in California was far more than a question of domestic supply in any single community. Then she called upon Edward Rainey, secretary to Mayor Rolph, to speak as a proponent of Hetch Hetchy.

Rainey is a ready talker, makes a good appearance, and is positive almost to rashness in making statements.

CLAIMS 10,000 WELLS ARE DRY.

The burden of his remarks was the scarcity of water in San Francisco and the inability of San Francisco to get an adequate supply without going to Hetch Hetchy. He drew a pathetic picture of 10,000 residents of San Francisco's suburbs whose wells had gone dry and who were supplied to a large extent by the sprinkling carts. Where the water in the sprinkling carts came from he did not say, but as it did not come from Hetch Hetchy, the presumption is that it was supplied by the Spring Valley. He said these people had been supplied in large part by wells, but in the dry season these wells had gone dry and in their extremity the people had appealed to the mayor to be allowed to take water from the sprinkling cart; which means that the water was hauled to them instead of being piped to them by the corporation.

APPEALS TO SYMPATHY.

Nevertheless Rainey made a strong appeal to the sympathies of his audience by depicting the sufferings of the poor in San Francisco, the congestion caused by lack of distributing facilities, and the bad sanitation incident to an insufficient water supply. He was also generous in his promises of what San Francisco would do for Oakland and the other bay cities in case she was allowed to take Hetch Hetchy. He endeavored to speak of the bay cities as one community, but he had to admit, himself, that his habit of regarding himself strictly as a San Franciscan causes him from time to time, to forget that he was speaking for other communities as well as San Francisco. But the impression he made was a good one and he received a good handclap when he closed.

SPEAKS OF OBSTACLES.

However, he struck a jarring note when he spoke of the obstacles put in San Francisco's way by certain influences chief among them the power companies, who, he said, were opposed to San Francisco getting Hetch Hetchy because it would enable the city to generate 115,000 horse power at nominal cost. This power, he said, would be supplied to the people of the bay cities for lighting and other purposes at the cost of generation and distribution. As it would come in competition with the power companies operating in this field, he said, the power companies were strenuously opposing the granting of Hetch Hetchy.

Dr. Derrick countered on this proposition by asking why it was that, if such an enormous power could be developed there at such low cost, power companies had not taken advantage of it before Hetch Hetchy was included in a government park. He said they went elsewhere and developed water power, but neglected Hetch Hetchy. Nobody undertook to answer this proposition of Dr. Derrick's and so the matter was allowed to rest there.

IS FOR HETCH HETCHY.

"Oh You Beautiful Doll!" in Reality Popular Show Like the Well Known Song

Exhibition at West Oakland Home Begins Thursday

Everything is in readiness for the doll show to be given for the benefit of the West Oakland home Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings in Ebell clubhouse. Tomorrow the members of the various committees will commence to decorate the exhibition, which will be one of the most elaborate affairs ever undertaken on this side of the bay.

At a business meeting of the board of directors and the representatives of the West Oakland home, which was held yesterday, final arrangements were perfected for the show, which will be brought to a close Saturday evening with a dance.

Among the graceful dancers who will appear in the entertainment are Miss Gladys Gerrish and Miss Helen Byers. Juvenile artists will also present a series of living pictures and will perform in character sketches and dancing specialties.

There will be a scene from "Mrs. Wiggs in the Cabbage Patch," which will be followed by songs by the children of the West Oakland home. The Little Workers' Society will assist in receiving the patrons at the show. They are aiding in making articles for the tables, which will contain handwork of all description. The young girls of the society have devoted much of their leisure time to making dolls' dresses. Several hundred dolls will be placed on exhibition and it is expected that every doll will be disposed of before midnight Saturday evening.

Tickets are being distributed rapidly, and according to present indications the show will be a financial success. About 1,150 admission cards have been printed and are now circulating among the philanthropic people of the bay cities, who are interested in the West Oakland home.

Dismiss Indictments For Smuggling Arms

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 2.—All indictments pending in the United States District Court here against firms and individuals of El Paso, Tex., and Tucson and Douglas, Ariz., on charges of smuggling arms to the Mexican revolutionists were dismissed today by Judge William Sawtelle, who sustained demurrers. There remain, however, several indictments charging conspiracy to smuggle war munitions across the international boundary.

The indictments which were dismissed on demurrers had been filed by the federal grand jury against the following business firms and persons: Krakaur, Zerk & More and Shelton-Payne Arms Company of El Paso, Texas; Albert Steinfeld & Co., A. Steinfeld and Hugo Donau of Tucson; Phelps-Dodge Mercantile Company, W. H. Brophy, F. E. Coles and W. H. Fisher of Bisbee; Douglas Hardware Company, L. D. McCartney, Joseph Slater, M. M. Tucker, W. Oil Lands Contest Raises Novel Point

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The contest over $200,000,000 worth of oil lands, part of grants to the Pacific railroads, took an unusual turn today before the supreme court, when the government and counsel for the Southern Pacific railroad came in with an additional brief, arguing whether oil is a mineral. The government has a suit to cancel grants to the Southern Pacific on the grounds it was not intended that mineral lands should pass to it.

Warrants Issue for United Mine Workers

PUEBLO, Colo., Dec. 2.—The task of issuing warrants for the arrest of 25 officials and members of the United Mine Workers of America, who were indicted yesterday by the United States grand jury, was begun today by court officials here.

The indictments charge conspiracy to monopolize labor and conspiracy in restraint of interstate commerce. They followed several weeks' investigation of conditions existing in the Colorado coal fields, where a strike has been in progress since September 25.

Priceless Treasures For N. Y. Museum

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The year 1913 will have an unusual record to contribute to the history of fine arts in this country. This fact is brought to the fore by the death yesterday of George Ahearn, the third millionaire art collector to die during the year. His death promises to enrich the Metropolitan Museum of art with priceless treasures which may be roughly estimated above $100,000,000 value in all.

Schooner Oakland Damaged by Gales

ASTORIA, Dec. 2.—The schooner Oakland, Captain Dent, which called from San Francisco for the Sluslaw river, has put into port. Shortly after the Oakland left the bay city she ran into a succession of gales, during which she lost two forefalls as well as several stays. Unable to make the Sluslaw river and being driven north by the storm, Captain Dent decided to come to the Columbia to make repairs and secure provisions.

Rebel General Expects to Soon Move on Mexican City.

Says He Will Soon Be Shooting at Ramparts of Capital.

BULLETIN.
HERMOSILLO, Sonora, Mex., Dec. 2.—Much activity was reported here today among the federal troops at Guaymas, and one of the two federal gunboats lying in Guaymas harbor steamed down the gulf. This was taken by the Constitutional officials here as indicating the federal garrison had begun an evacuation on the California gulf, so subnormal being by the Huerta troops since the beginning of the insurgent revolt in Sonora.

JUAREZ, Mexico, Dec. 2.—Hasty preparations were under way today in the rebel ranks for the prompt occupation of Chihuahua, the picturesque capital of the state of Chihuahua, which is reported to have been evacuated by the federal troops because of threatened starvation of its 35,000 population. General Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, said Chihuahua would be made the base of aggressive activities southward.

"We will be shooting at the ramparts of Mexico City within a month," said Villa, who met in the capital can oust Huerta in a day. With 3500 rebels and sixteen field pieces advanced as far as Carrizal, 30 miles south of Juarez, on the way to Chihuahua, Villa will remain here until he communicates with General Carranza before he proceeds south. At Chihuahua he expects to join General Chao and other rebel leaders, and with a combined force of 8000 proceed toward Zacatecas, the first important city south of Torreon. Other rebel forces, Villa said, are to proceed up the west coast toward Guadalajara.

According to late reports which Villa said he received by couriers, the evacuation of Chihuahua by the fed- erals was brought about hastily. It was feared fighting would result in the wholesale killing of non-combatants, the poor were half starved and the wealthy residents could not expect any mercy from the invaders. General Merced is said to have decided on a flight to the American border so that he could communicate with Provisional President Huerta. Communication between Chihuahua and Mexico City has been impossible for weeks.

FEDERALS EVACUATE TOWN.

HERMOSILLO, Mexico, Dec. 2.—Officials here received information today from federal dispatches that the garrisons at Guaymas and Mazatlan had been preparing to evacuate. It was believed that this had given rise to the reports from Juarez that the two west coast ports had fallen into the hands of the insurgents.

There has been no disposition to attack either town, as it has been assumed that sooner or later the fed- erals would come voluntarily. Both towns were defended by well fortified positions and at Guaymas the federal gunboats increased the danger to the attacking party.

It has been expected for many days that the Mexico City government would order a concentration of its forces in the northwest as a matter of protection against further advances of the constitutionalists, while Guaymas and Mazatlan could be taken only with great loss. The value of these great garrisons of those towns would be greater, it was believed, if mobilized with other forces at some more central point.

Father to Hang, She Refuses Last Visit

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Because she believes that her father will go to his death with a stronger heart if he does not see her, Luella Larson, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Louis A. Larson, under sentence to hang for the murder of his wife, said today she had refused Larson's request that she pay him one last visit before he leaves for the penitentiary. Although Larson was so convicted largely by the testimony of his daughter, he broke down yesterday and requested that she be sent to him. When her father's wishes were made known to Miss Larson she asked for time in which to decide, and came to the conclusion that he would be braver on the gallows if he saw her no more.

ATTACK IS MADE UPON HETCH-HETCHY SCHEME AT WATER CONFERENCE

CLAIM THAT SUPPLY IS INDISPENSABLE FORSAKEN

Statement That Reservoir Site Would Make Pleasure Park Is Disputed

(Con. From Preceding Page)

Dockwiler to whom Rainey had frequently alluded as Oakland's consulting engineer. Nobody mentioned the fact, but Dockwiler is also consulting engineer for San Francisco.

the Hetch Hetchy project. He was in the employ of San Francisco long before he was employed as consulting engineer for the city of Oakland. This is mentioned merely to show the exact position Dockwiler occupied. He is an engineer of acknowledged skill and unblemished personal character. At the Hotel Oakland he spoke not from an impartial standpoint but as an advocate of the Hetch Hetchy scheme.

Dockwiler is a pleasing and plausible speaker and he started out by saying that all San Francisco wanted was a privilege of putting up a dam across the gorge at the lower end of Hetch Hetchy valley, taking the water which would otherwise go to waste and using it for domestic purposes in the bay cities.

ARGUES FOR PROJECT.

The engineer said various projects had been examined by the city engineers and the Hetch Hetchy project was found to be the cheapest and most available. He said 400,000,000 gallons a day would be derived from that source without injuring the irrigation interests in the Turlock and Modesto district. He said this water would be drawn from a watershed uninhabited and now protected as a government park. He said the Hetch Hetchy would be beautiful than it now is by turning it into a lake. The city would build fine roads into the valley and enclose the valley with a driveway and otherwise make it an attractive place of resort. Then he went back to certain water reservoirs he had seen in Europe and spoke about their being utilized as pleasure resorts, having driveways around them and being utilized as pleasure grounds as well as sources of water supply.

AVOIDS COST DETAILS.

Dockwiler did not go into the particulars of the cost of the Hetch Hetchy scheme nor of the cost of other projects which are examined or said to be examined by the engineering corps of San Francisco. He stuck to generalities rather than precise figures, laid great stress on the fact that the Raker bill protected the irrigators of the San Joaquin valley and that the laws of sanitation did not prohibit the dual use of Hetch Hetchy and the water reservoir and a pleasure resort.

HOLD DISCUSSION.

The discussion was led by Miss Mollie E. Connors, who called attention to Rainey's remarks in regard to the shortage of water in San Francisco. Miss Connors asked Rainey if the Spring Valley water shed was not one of the finest in the world, and why, with the tremendous output of water, there should be a watering cart system anywhere in the city.

Miss Connors read from letters, part of a public report, the letters signed by S. P. Eastman, vice-president and manager of the Spring Valley Water Company. The extracts read were as follows:

"The shortage in supply in the city is not due to lack of storage or collection capacity to the city, but to the lack (in small, isolated, outlying sections of the city) of distributing pipes of sufficient size to supply the maximum demand in hot weather and possibly adequate fire protection in those

CALAVERAS SYSTEM.

"The partial development of the Calaveras system, now in process of construction, will add, with the completion of the Calaveras dam, about forty million gallons a day to the developed supply capacity of the company.

"The ultimate capacity of the system of the company is over 200 million gallons a day, and it can be further increased economically by adding a conduit from the San Joaquin river.

"The supply capacity of the company will suffice for the needs of San Francisco until about the year 2000, according to the estimates of our engineers."

The speaker asked why, if Spring Valley could develop 200,000,000 gallons of water a day, there was any need of a new system.

She asked also why, if San Francisco were provided for until the year 2000, there should be any need of going to the enormous expense of trying the great Hetch Hetchy experiment?

Rainey closed the discussion with an appeal for the Hetch Hetchy water system. He informed the audience that some of the ablest men in San Francisco were now in Washington and they hoped the bill would be passed by the Senate before December 6.

DOESN'T DISPUTE ESTIMATE.

Replying to Miss Connors, who asked him if it was true that the Spring Valley had a supply, if fully developed, exceeding 200,000,000 gallons daily, Engineer Dockwiler said: "I will not dispute the estimate, but when all that water is used up what are you going to do then?"

Later in the evening Miss Connors returned to the attack by saying J. E. Baker had informed her that the city of London, containing over seven million inhabitants, used only a little more than 200,000,000 gallons daily. Then she read from the report to show that the Spring Valley supply could be developed to afford an amount of water equal to the entire consumption of London.

Baker interrupted to state that the information he had given Miss Connors was gained from a federal consular report, which gave the London consumption as a fraction over 21 gallons per capita, and the great consumption as something over 220,000,000 gallons.

Frank C. Havens remarked that the official water report of London for the year 1911 showed, he said, the total consumption was 225,000,000 gallons daily and the per diem per capita consumption as 21 1/2 gallons for a population of 7,099,000.

At the close of some questions addressed to Dockwiler Rainey was on his feet again, when Frank C. Havens asked him how much it would cost to bring water down from Hetch Hetchy as shown by Engineer Freeman's report.

"Thirty-eight million, five hundred thousand dollars," said Rainey.

DENIES $77,000,000 COST. "Does not the Freeman report estimate the cost as $77,000,000?" asked Evans.

"No," replied Rainey. "The $77,000,000 includes the $35,000,000 or $40,000,000 required to purchase the Spring Valley plant."

"That is not so," said Mr. Evans, and sat down.

Dr. William Bade stepped forward and said: "I beg your pardon for interrupting, but the $77,000,000 estimate of cost contained in the Freeman report does not include the cost of acquiring Spring Valley. It is the estimated cost of bringing water from Hetch Hetchy and conveying it to the consumer."

Rainey still contended that he was right, but the dispute was not settled by the production of the report, which Rainey had with him.

MRS. BARRY ON ROSTRUM. At the conclusion of Dr. Derrick's speech Mrs. Annie Little Barry took the rostrum and called on A. L. Cowell, who spoke on the irrigation interests of San Joaquin valley.

The burden of Cowell's speech was that the San Joaquin valley should not be robbed of the water necessary to its development when there were other sources as easily available and whose utilization would inflict no injury to the agricultural interests of the state. In substance he said the San Joaquin valley has not enough water to irrigate the lands susceptible of intensive cultivation. The Sacramento valley has more than it needs.

IRRIGATION STUDIED.

The need of water for irrigation purposes had been the subject of acute study in the San Joaquin valley and that already it had been suggested that the surplus water flowing through the Sacramento valley from the northern mountains be stored and conveyed to the waterless land in the San Joaquin. Why should this situation be aggravated by taking the natural waters of the San Joaquin valley away and condemning a large area of fertile land to perpetual aridity? If every drop of water that falls in the San Joaquin valley were stored and utilized for irrigation purposes there would still be an insufficient amount to irrigate all the lands susceptible of intensive farming, was one of his most significant statements. He quoted Frank Adams of the detensely productive to perpetual aridity.

He agreed with Dockwiler that all the land immediately tributary to the Tuolumne river could be irrigated with the water reserved to the irrigators by the terms of the Raker bill, but he said there is a vast area immediately contiguous to the watersheds of the Tuolumne river which could be irrigated from the combined waters of the Tuolumne and Merced. If the diversion of water contemplated by San Francisco was not permitted,

DEPENDENCE ON INTERIOR.

Now, he continued, the people of the valley have the best wishes for the bay cities. They want the bay cities to grow and prosper because the more people there are here the larger and better markets they will have for their products. On the other hand the people of the bay cities will have a larger prosperity if the interior prospers; the more land that ruined, the greater trade San Francisco and her sister cities will have with the interior. He said the interests of the interior and the bay cities were mutual and reciprocal and that the cost of living was largely determined by the amount of foodstuffs produced in the region immediately tributary to San Francisco bay. San Francisco and her sister cities will insure themselves, he said, if they reduce the productive capacity of the interior.

He said the land is to be made available for the uses of agriculture. We lay down the proposition, he continued, that you go north where they have more water than they need and not come south and use the water from where we have too little, and by doing so contract and minimize the productive power of the soil upon which San Francisco and her sister cities will have to depend for their food supply and trade.

ALLY OF NATURE LOVERS.

Dr. William Bade then took the platform for the nature lovers. His temperate language and pleasing manner made a decidedly favorable impression. He proposed a resolution that the Hetch Hetchy project be a thing but a visionary enthusiasm.

He dealt with facts in a practical manner and from a standpoint which every member of the audience could well appreciate. His attitude was not that San Francisco should be deprived of its water supply, but that San Francisco should not ask for Hetch Hetchy unless it were a great necessity. He said the Tuolumne valley would be ruined as a pleasure resort if San Francisco were allowed to have Hetch Hetchy. He said the valley would be ruined as a pleasure resort if San Francisco were allowed to have Hetch Hetchy.

He said the Tuolumne valley would be ruined as a pleasure resort if San Francisco were allowed to have Hetch Hetchy. He said the valley would be ruined as a pleasure resort if San Francisco were allowed to have Hetch Hetchy. He said the valley would be ruined as a pleasure resort if San Francisco were allowed to have Hetch Hetchy.

body who contended that San Francisco could get water anywhere but from Hetch Hetchy.

He went into the cost of bringing the water from Hetch Hetchy and figured it out it could be done on the installment plan, that is, by building in sections, for $550,000 now and $18,000,000 later on. But Mr. Bade again stuck a pin in his contention by saying that this estimate of cost only included the cost of bringing the water to Crystal Springs on the San Francisco side and Lake Chabot on the Oakland side. He said that the water would have to be carried into the city and distributed at an enormous additional cost. This did not bother Seattle, however, in fact, nothing bothered him. He rode down opposition and contradiction with the confidence of youth, and like the North Carolina justice of the peace, could see only on side of the case because to hear both sides tended to make doubt and confusion in the mind of the court. He made a good talk, however, and to be heard at all he must have made him rather too positive to inspire conviction.

SUPERVISORS ABSENT.

Supervisor D. C. Murphy was to speak for Hetch Hetchy but for some reason or other he was absent and there was no one to take his place on that side of the question. E. B. Parsons, however, spoke for the city and the money value of natural scenery.

MAY CHANGE U. C. STUDENT AFFAIRS

Reorganization of System of Administration Desired at University.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Dec. 2.—The fact that the term of Graduate Manager William B. Donald is soon to expire is being made the occasion for the incumbent of this position appointive in the future, instead of elective. At present the graduate manager, who is the most important person in the official corps of the Associated Students, is elected thereby. It is argued that so important an office should be filled by appointment, which will allow more due deliberation than a student vote.

Signed by a number of the most prominent senior students, the suggestion of a discussion of the situation is printed in the university daily this morning, urging the change.

DIRECTS AFFAIRS.

The signers also advise that, for the executive committee which now directs most of the affairs of the student body, there be substituted a council chosen by each of the academic colleges according to the registration therein. It is added that such a council, consisting of 15 members, the present executive committee being made up of less than a third of that number. The signers of the statement are the following:

H. C. Brock, V. E. Brecken, Paul Chatham, F. J. Cunningham, R. M. Eaton, H. L. Knapp, Milton Marks, F. C. Mills, E. C. Lipman, F. H. Partridge, J. H. Quire, J. L. Schoolcraft, E. L. Shirrell, J. W. Snyder, Elizabeth James, Elizabeth Baker, Julia Austin, Deborah Pyle, G. H. Sutcliffe.

Editor Eaton of the Daily Californian sides with the signers of the statement. He declares that the present system is too autocratic and not sufficiently representative of the student body.

WHAT EDITOR SAYS.

He adds the following: "The Executive Committee must be incited with the bug of representative government before it can take any effective action. It must be changed into a piece of governmental machinery of a democratic and broad character. It must be made up of about 25, with members elected from each of the academic colleges. It must conduct business very efficiently by the committee system, and it must undertake to decide general student questions without reference to all shades of opinion. It would stimulate keener and more careful thinking on university matters, and would be a great help to the talk. A wider body to replace the Executive Committee and to take over the direction of the Graduate Manager, means a more real student government."

GRAND OFFICERS NAMED BY OMEGA NU SORORITY

DIES AT END OF TERRIBLE JOURNEY

The Horrors and Privations of Mexican Flight End in Woman's Death.

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—Her strength sapped by the horrors of a long ride to safety through war-torn Mexico, Mrs. Ada Belle Peterson died as the result of home of her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Ritter, of 2523 Dwight way. She was the fifth of the party with which she came north from Torreon to succumb to the horrors of that journey.

With Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Ritter on the fearful ride were three other sisters, Mrs. Marie Van Valkenburgh, Miss Estelle Trowbridge and Mrs. Maude Bales. Arriving here, they went at once to Mrs. Ritter's home. Miss Trowbridge was removed soon after to the University Infirmary, where she is suffering now from nervous breakdown. Mrs. Peterson has arrived between life and death since the horror of the party two weeks ago. Her death occurred finally yesterday afternoon.

A large number of Americans were in the trainload which accompanied Mrs. Ritter and her party from Torreon, four days customarily from the American border by rail. Several trains of federal soldiers were ahead of and behind them. Dynamite mines placed on caissons to play these soldiers three times failed to explode, as the emigrant train passed over them because of faulty percussion caps, and once the train was but little ways from a 25-pound dynamite charge that exploded.

The man believed to have set the latter charge was caught and hung to a tree within plain sight of the train. The train was stalled at this point, and for three days its passengers were forced to gaze upon the gruesome corpse as it swung from the bough of a tree.

Three days without food and water and 30 days with no opportunity to change their clothes were other experiences of the party. Two score miles from the Texas border, after having been six days hauled by mules, the train was abandoned back to Tampico, and from there they escaped and made their way overland with extreme difficulty and much suffering to Galveston.

It was on October 30 that the party reached Galveston, and finally received proper care and food. Four other members of the same party, who went to other towns, have died as the result of the privations and suffering. Mrs. Peterson being the fifth.

ALAMEDANS WILL VISIT IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Krust and daughter, Miss Priscilla Krust, accompanied by Miss Margaret Taylor of Piedmont, will leave December 18 for the Hawaiian Islands on the steamer Mongolia. They will be away for five or six weeks and will be entertained by friends during their stay. Important developments in Pearl harbor, which are being made by the Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific Company, will be one of the interests of Hermann Krust, former president of the company.

BERKELEY PERSONALS

BERKELEY, Dec. 2.—A number of the members of Pi Beta Phi sorority have been asked as guests to tea Miss Katharine Westbrook of Alameda is to give Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Theodore Benedict Lyman is to entertain Friday afternoon, fifty persons having been bidden to a card party she has planned.

The Benedicts, a newly organized dancing club of this city, have planned their next gathering for Friday evening at the Twentieth Century Club. Members of the club will attend as well as a few invited guests.

From an enjoyable trip through Canada and the East, Mrs. Oliver Perry Evans and Mrs. Archibald Barnard have returned to their homes in this city. They were gone six weeks.

Mrs. J. E. McIntyre and her daughter, Miss Lulu Rubke, are home from a tour of European points of interest that lasted for eighteen months. A year of their time away was spent at Berlin, where Miss Rubke took graduate work at the University of Berlin. She was a member of the 1912 class at the University of California.

An interesting dancing party of Saturday night is expected to be the one at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house which Miss Margaret Logan of that sorority has planned. Her guests will be the Misses Beryl and Louise Burch, whose engagements are of recent announcement. Over a hundred guests have been bidden to the affair.

Berkeley Assembly holds its next dance tomorrow evening at Twentieth Century Club. Several dinner parties are preliminaries to the dance have been planned by members of the assembly.

PAINTING OF MRS. HEARST TO BE UNVEILED FRIDAY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Dec. 2.—In honor of Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, regent and benefactor of the university, a painting of her by Mrs. Winifred Rieber will be unveiled with appropriate exercises Friday afternoon at Hearst hall, the building she presented to the women students of the university.

Mrs. Rieber, the painter, is the wife of Professor Charles H. Rieber of the department of philosophy, dean of the summer sessions.

The painting is to be hung in the hall which bears her name as a token of appreciation on the part of the university women. The painting was done by Mrs. Rieber on commission of the Associated Women students, and has been finished some time. It is not yet before presented, however, for its formal acceptance and unveiling and its unveiling.

ALAMEDA AUTOMOBILES ORGANIZE MOTOR CLUB

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—The Alameda Motor Club was organized at a meeting held at 1212 Eighth street, at a long-felt want and within a short time Alameda can boast one of the largest motor clubs in the state.

The meeting was presided over by J. H. Burton as temporary chairman. Following the preliminary discussion of the advisability of organizing the club, officers were elected as follows:

President, John D. Wardlaw, vice-president, Earl H. Gunn, secretary, R. A. Lovdahl, treasurer, Ernest Reimers, sentinel, O. B. Moorhead; by-laws committee, A. A. Turbull, Ted Hartley and R. A. Lovdahl.

There was a large number of motor enthusiasts in attendance at the session. Social events will be features of the club's purposes, and an endurance race, to which other organizations will be asked to participate, will be arranged in the near future.

Regains Health Again to Sing

MRS. GEORGE W. HALL.

ALAMEDA, Dec. 2.—Once again will the talented young singer, Mrs. George William Hall (Edna Fischer), whose honey-moon was interrupted by an attack of scarlet fever, take part in the music life of the east bay cities. Mrs. Hall, who, before her marriage, was contralto soloist at the Plymouth Congregational church, Oakland, was taken ill a few weeks ago with the fever which has kept her and her mother, who has been her constant attendant, in quarantine until the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall joined the family circle for the Thanksgiving celebration.

at the clubhouse tomorrow morning, where they will be received by Mrs. James De Witt and Mrs. Maurice Brown. The display, which will embrace the work done by the members at any time, will be arranged by Mrs. Henry Forster.

Thursday afternoon's meeting will be in charge of the Household Arts Section. Mrs. G. Alexander Wright, curator, will be hostess. California products will be exhibited as a part of the program, which will be given by Mrs. M. E. W. Kerr. The form of a stereoscopic lecture on food products and other offerings from the land of sunshine and flowers. Mrs. Kerr will sing two California songs and the usual social hour will follow.

The dramatic section continued, the physical culture class today with folk and modern dancing. The class has increased to about double since the opening meeting of the fall session, and much interest is taken in the different dances. The dramatic work will be continued along the line of modern drama.

Friday the Music History Section will listen to a lecture by Professor Henry B. Pasmore on "The Experiences of a Singing Master." There will be songs by Mrs. Fredrick Ashley, Miss Sophia Rottman and Miss Ethel.

The Social Section is planning a repetition of the success of its first dance, Monday evening next, when the curator, Mrs. S. J. Ackerman, with Mrs. J. R. Knowlton, Mrs. Franklin Noah, Mrs. Louis Ward, Mrs. Arthur Hammer, Smith and Miss Grace Claviter, will be on the reception committee. Mrs. J. R. Roche, Mrs. H. C. Bennett and Mrs. Mary Parkhurst will have charge of the cardroom, and Mrs. Herbert Clark and Mrs. Nettie Rogers will be the decoration committee.

Sunday at the Fischer home in this city, the celebration having been delayed until the lifting of the quarantine. The young married people have been in their new home in Manila avenue, Oakland, which had been artistically fitted up before their marriage, which took place there.

JUDGE STOPS FIRE IS CAUSE DR. LYMAN TRIAL OF $50,000 DAMAGE

Wellborn May Order Rehearing as Result of Alleged Jury Tampering.

Published Reports Cause Sensation in Case and Some Trouble.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—The trial of Dr. John Grant Lyman, charged with mail fraud, stopped today for 24 hours while Judge Olin Wellborn of the United States district court, took under consideration the question of stopping it altogether and beginning a new trial.

Newspaper articles insinuating communication between agents of the defense and members of the jury caused the halt.

When the trial of the Panama land promoter was resumed this morning Paul Schenck, Lyman's attorney called the court's attention to the newspaper stories and declared there was no truth in them.

Then Chas. Dreyfus, one of the jurors, sprang to his feet and denounced the stories, declaring they were insults as they intimated "there were bribe takers on the jury."

Edward A. Regan, special prosecutor, then arose. He assured the court and the jury there never had been any suspicion of any communication between the jurors and the defense. He said the stories had, that origin in the government's investigation of certain of its own witnesses.

At Regan's request the jury was dismissed for a few minutes while both he and Schenck told the judge they believed it would be impossible to complete the present trial because of the impression made on the minds of the jurors by the newspaper articles in question.

Judge Wellborn then ordered a recess of a day while he considered discharging the jurors and beginning a new trial.

During the argument, Lyman tried to address the court but was denied that privilege. At the end he was smiling and apparently happy although a new trial would keep him in the Los Angeles county jail for several more months.

Kansas Bank Forced To Close Its Doors

YATES CENTER, Kas., Dec. 2.—The Yates Center National bank was closed today by order of Bank Examiner A. O. Culler. Failure to realize on securities was the cause assigned. The bank's liabilities are said to be nearly $300,000 and its assets, it realized on, in excess of that amount.

NATIONAL EGG BOYCOTT PLANNED BY HOUSEWIVES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Housewives here yesterday joined the movement for a national boycott on eggs. Thousands of women pledged themselves not to buy eggs until the price is reduced.

The campaign was formally launched by Mrs. Ellis A. Loran, president of the Federation of Women's clubs, at a meeting of the organization. Announcement of the boycott plan was received with cheers, the members present forthwith pledging themselves to cease buying eggs until they are reduced to 35 cents a dozen.

Fifty women started at once a four days' house-to-house canvass for the boycott plan.

MOTORCYCLE INJURES STUDENT SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Hamilton Murray, a law student of 2855 Scott street, was run down by a motorcycle at Hyde and California streets this morning, and received a bruised leg and contusions and abrasions of the body. He was treated at the Harbor hospital.

OFFICES MAY BE PROVED ILLEGAL

City Auditor's Statement Casts Bombshell Into Advisory Committee.

Turner Defies Gross; Says Pay Is Law's Puzzle. Rule Is Issue.

Commissioner Turner made defiance to the city auditor's office today when he was informed that the appointment of two of the advisory committee to the health department was illegal in that it conflicts with provisions of the charter.

"You can inform the auditor's office that we concede that they are right," said Turner. "But I shall make the appointments nevertheless. The meeting is to be held, and I cannot see how the recognition or non-recognition by the auditor's office can make any difference."

The city charter provides in section 35 as follows:

"No person holding any office, position or employment under the city government shall be eligible to hold any other office or position of honor or emolument under the government of the city of Oakland."

According to Assistant Auditor Earl Wade this section applies to two recent appointments made by Turner, and this Turner conceded. The two appointments are those of Chief of Police Walter J. Peterson and Dr. S. Kelly.

Turner has appointed Chief Peterson and Dr. Kelly as two of the members of the advisory committee of the health department, following upon the reorganization of that department and the appointment of Dr. A. F. Gillman as city health director. Peterson and Dr. Kelly are already employed in the service of the city, one on the board of education and the other as chief of police. By the terms of the charter neither can receive any additional appointment.

Turner received word of this interpretation of the charter and immediately admitted that he would not have any effect upon his action, as he considered the action of the auditor's office was merely to point out that if any of the officers should wish to provide for remuneration for the work of this advisory committee of the health department, which will be, in a sense, a sort of board of health without executive powers, the warrants would not be paid.

NO LEGAL POWERS.

The question also arises as to whether the act of members of the committee created by city ordinance, but appointed in violation of the charter, can have any legal effect. The matter of the controversy between Dr. R. A. Archibald of the health department and A. E. Young, has been referred to Dr. Gillman, health director of the city, and he will probably take it up with the health department advisory committee appointed by Turner. The question may be raised as to whether this committee will have the legal right to investigate and consider the matter. Dr. H. N. Ewer is head of the advisory committee.

WASHINGTON ST. TRACKING COMPLAINT TO BE HEARD

In the complaint against the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway by the Downtown Association, asking the Railroad Commission of the state to instruct the railway company to lay tracks and operate cars on Washington street, between the city and the city of San Francisco, the railway company has taken up before Commissioner Eshleman on Tuesday, December 2, at 10 o'clock a. m.

In addition to the officers of the Downtown Association it is expected that a large number of property owners along the street will attend the hearing.

The meeting of the Downtown Association on Thursday evening next presumably a committee will be appointed to be present at the hearing as the representatives of the organization, in addition to the president and secretary.

SETTLEMENT MADE IN CROWSON DIVORCE SUIT

Edward A. Crowson and his wife, who have been the principals in sensational divorce proceedings in the superior court for some time past, have agreed to a property settlement between themselves pending decision in the divorce case. By the terms of a stipulation filed today the couple save division their household effects in the home at 5939 Shafter avenue.

Crowson is to pay his wife $50 per month alimony, while she gets the custody of their minor daughter, Donna.

Madeline Sherston commenced suit for divorce today against G. H. Sherston, charging desertion. The couple were married in this city in September, 1911. Plaintiff says that she was deserted a year later.

MRS. ALVERSON TO AID IN CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

To aid in the Christmas program which Miss Alice Davies, violinist and leader of the choir at the chapel of the Samaritan, Ninth and Oak streets, will give, Mrs. Alice-Alverson has been engaged. Mrs. Alverson is the author of the well known song, "Sixty-five Years of California Song." Mrs. Alverson was a well known singer in her childhood days and is now 30 years of age, but still retains the sweetness and flexibility of her voice.

Although a cripple she is young in spirit and does not use crutches. Mrs. Davies considers her part in the program an important one and a treat to all who hear her.

HERE TO STUDY CITY'S REGIME FOR ENGLAND

Reginald Calley, charter accountant of Edinburgh, Scotland, is a visitor in Oakland, being registered at the Hotel Oakland. He is here to make a study of the Oakland Commission Government, planning a report on the new system for use in England. He will visit different city offices, going over books and making reports and notes of the work.

XMAS MONEY

By straight-forward, simple business methods we are able to demonstrate to our many satisfied customers that this is by far the best place for quick, private loans. We have money on hand for any sized loan. We will let you have from $10 to $10,000 on your promise to pay if you have furniture or a piano which remains in your possession.

ONE MONTH FREE
Nothing to Pay Until After the Holidays
$10. PAY IT IN 12 MONTHS OF $1.10.
$20. PAY IT IN 12 MONTHS OF $2.20.
$30. PAY IT IN 12 MONTHS OF $3.30.
$50. PAY IT IN 12 MONTHS OF $5.50.
Weekly monthly payments as desired. These payments include interest, principal and all charges; nothing deducted. You get the full amount in cash. A complete statement of account is given you showing exactly what the loan will cost. You can be paid in full at any time and you will only be charged for the time you keep it. Extensive plans in case of sickness or other misfortune.

CONFIDENTIAL LOANS TO LADIES ON THEIR OWN SIGNATURE
No charge for quick service; money always ready. We hand you the cash while others are thinking about it. Loans are easier to get and cheaper to pay on than elsewhere.

Christmas Money
YOU WILL FIND
that our rates are the very lowest and our system the best on household furniture and piano loans.

We make loans on personal property without removing the goods from your possession. We charge you nothing if we do not make you a loan.

We make no objectionable inquiries in your neighborhood, but do business in a fair, square and confidential manner. Do not lose your personal independence by asking a friend for a temporary loan when you are in need, but come to us for your money. We make it a plain business proposition; you pay for what you get and do not have to ask favors.

We make these loans to be repaid in monthly or weekly payments for ONE MONTH TO ONE YEAR, and charge you for the use of the money only for the length of time you have it.

We Give You a Written Statement showing to a cent the exact cost of a loan and also to a cent the exact amount of discount we allow for each month the loan is paid before time expires. You can get no better proposition. You will find it to your advantage to get our rates before placing a loan elsewhere.

No Charges Deducted
Loans with other companies paid up and more money advanced on easy payments and longer time.

WANT SPEED ON P. O. ADDITION
Chamber of Commerce Will Employ Architectural Aid.

That the Chamber of Commerce will employ architectural aid in order to gain speed in the proposed addition to the Oakland postoffice, in order that it may become a realized institution before four or five years have passed, was the statement of Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce today.

"There is $115,000 available for the land for the postoffice at the present time," Denison said, "but no likelihood of the committee and the architectural department of the treasury getting at it for three years, because of other work ahead. There are 720 buildings to be built for the treasury in the next five years."

Therefore we propose to get architects to make preliminary plans so that, in case a crisis comes when the site is decided on, the whole memorandum may not be repeated before the building can be started. Plans have not been completed for I have just received data as to the projects ahead and the time to be occupied in the matter."

Denison declared that if plans are hastened, three years will see the purchase of the lot and, with outside aid, the actual construction of the building, which is planned to adjoin the present postoffice and gain more room. The appropriation was made through recent efforts of Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, and is now before the treasury's architectural department for settlement. On account of the press of business, and the rule that all projects must come in their turn, the case of the hall, it cannot be taken up until the others are disposed of.

LADIES' AID THEATER PARTY PROVES SUCCESS
The theater party given last evening at the Orpheum, under the auspices of the Catholic Ladies' Aid societies of Alameda county, was a social as well as a financial success. A large number of ladies from San Francisco branches attended, and members and friends from Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda filled the auditorium. The party was opened by a variety of box parties, preceded by dinner. The proceeds will be devoted to the fund created for the purpose of lifting an indebtedness on property owned by the association near Santa Cruz.

DR. CRAIG DENIES CHARGE OF MURDER

Innocent and Unfairly Prosecuted by State, Says Counsel

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Dec. 2.—Dr. William B. Craig was portrayed as an innocent man who was being unfairly prosecuted by the state in the opening statement of the defense made by Henry N. Spaan today at the trial of Craig for the alleged murder of Dr. Helena Knabe.

Mr. Spaan denied that there was any greater intimacy than that of good friendship between Dr. Craig and Dr. Knabe. He said there was never any promise of marriage or any talk of marriage between the two.

Wife Says Husband Tried to Choke Her

MELROSE, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Ross Tutbill of 1415 Forty-first avenue, asked the protection of the Melrose police this morning, declaring that her husband, who is an expressman with a stand at the corner of Fruitvale avenue and East Fourteenth street, had been drinking heavily and had attempted to choke her. She stated that when under the influence of liquor he had asked her to commit suicide with him. Her husband came home, she said, on Saturday night and wanted her to go with him to the house, as she was afraid of him. She has been living with a friend since Saturday night. Officer Collett was detailed to accompany her home this morning and to see that she was given protection. Mrs. Tutbill may swear out a warrant for the arrest of her husband on a charge of threatening her life.

Two Women Elected To City Council

ALBANY, Ore., Dec. 2.—Two women were among five members of the city council of Sodaville elected yesterday. Mrs. N. Bridges and Mrs. L. A. Simons, the successful women candidates, are wives of men chosen respectively for city marshal and city recorder in the same election.

Delinquent Tax List Lowest in History

Taxes which became delinquent Monday last week amount to but $43,523.33, which, according to City Treasurer Edwin Nespe, is one of the lowest delinquent tax lists in the city's history. The amount to be collected was $1,241,388.28; the amount collected is $1,197,864.95. The total amount of taxes for this year is $1,225,314.88. The second installment is due on April 25, 1914, and amounts to $1,085,514.88. Of this amount, $100,000 has already been paid in, leaving $985,514.88 still to be collected.

ACCOUNTING BY LAW PARTNER IS ASKED

Attorney Frederick W. Voost of San Francisco, commenced suit in the superior court today against his former law partner, Francis Colby, for an accounting of partnership funds and the appointment of a receiver for their outstanding indebtedness. Plaintiff alleges that out of $218,500 Colby has collected and secured from various cases he handled together $982.33, which he has failed to account for.

Raw! Raw! After Shaving? Use ZEMO!

That Rough, Drawn, Stinging Feeling Goes Like Magic—Leaves Face Cool and Comfortable.

Get a 25c Bottle Today and Prove It. Rub a little ZEMO on your face when you are through shaving. Wonder of wonders! Your face will feel as fresh as a June morning! You'll just love to shave.

"Raw, Raw, No Longer Raw! ZEMO Made My Face Feel Fine."

ZEMO does to the skin what no talcum powder, lotion, or witch hazel can do. The roughness, rawness and "drawn" feeling vanishes instantly. ZEMO makes cuts, shaved-off pimples and sore places heal almost magically. Shaving loses its terrors for wily barbers and tender skins.

ZEMO is a revelation for any sore cuts, inflamed, irritated skin, blotches and blackheads. It is absolutely guaranteed to stop itching instantly. For seborrhea cannot be equaled. ZEMO is a clean, antiseptic solution. Pleasant to use as a toilet water or Bay Rum—worth the light is gold to any man who shaves at home.

Just Our Luck-- Panama Hats Cheap, But It's Winter

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The government has twenty-five packages of Panama hats on its hands for sale cheap. They arrived in New York from South America on invoices alleged to have been fraudulently low, but the consignee did not call for them. The shippers claimed, therefore, they were not technically "entered" and could not be seized by the government. The Supreme Court of the United States has decided otherwise.

Pindell Nomination Again Before Senate

ENDS SAD LIFE BY TAKING GAS

Young Woman Leaves Pathetic Message of Discouragement.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—"I simply haven't got the courage to fight with fate any longer." This was part of a message left by Miss Esther Ellsworth of 2738 Mission street, who committed suicide early this morning by gas asphyxiation. The young woman hired the room in the Mission street house expressly for the purpose of ending her life and wrote a note to the landlady apologizing for the use to which she had put the apartment.

GOV. JOHNSON TO SPEAK AT MEN'S LEAGUE DINNER

Governor Hiram Johnson will be the guest of honor at the Men's League dinner of the First Congregational church of this city, which will be held in the lecture room of the church on Tuesday evening, December 2, at 6:30. At 8 p. m. the members will adjourn to the main auditorium of the church where the Governor will deliver an interesting lecture upon the most important bills passed by the last legislature.

DON'T WAIT FOR PIMPLES TO GO

They'll Leave in a Hurry If You Use Stuart's Calcium Wafers --Tried and Proved by Thousands.

"Oh, they'll go away as I grow older"—perhaps. But why wait for old age to correct the disorders of young blood? Stuart's Calcium Wafers will destroy the eruptions caused by blood impurities in the course of a few days. Why be subjected to the annoyance of a pimply face for years and lose all the admiration and love that youth has dear when the remedy is so simple? Thousands of people throughout the country own the Stuart's Calcium Wafers. Why not gain for yourself the blessing these have obtained?

"Don't Wait for Old Age. You Will Never Lose Pimples This Way Until You Lose Your Beauty."

Skin disorders—except those caused by parasites—are also blood disorders. Purify the blood and at the same time you drive out the pimples. Calcium sulphide, the chief constituent of Stuart's Calcium Wafers, is the greatest of blood purifiers and is recommended by all physicians. It converts the poisons in the blood into gases that the pores can easily eliminate. Among the features of her exhibition were several of Joaquin Miller, Mrs. Susan B. Miller, founder of Mills college, and various mythological subjects. A bust of her husband, the noted Japanese poet, was also included in today's exhibit.

IRON BAR, HIT BY TRAIN, MAY CAUSE MAN'S DEATH

Struck by a key route train on the pier to the mole this afternoon, an iron bar, thrown through the air, inflicted a serious wound on T. Peterson, a carpenter, employed there. The bar struck the man on the head and a possible fracture of the skull is feared by the physicians. Peterson had been working with the bar and laid it on the track. As he approached to pick it up the train passed, throwing it off. He was taken to the emergency hospital in an unconscious condition, and may die.

DONOVAN TO BE GIVEN ASSISTANT

Mayor Denies Report Architect Will Be Relieved of Auditorium Duties.

That an advisory architect may be employed by City Supervising Architect J. J. Donovan to assist him in a consulting capacity in the work on the municipal auditorium was announced today by Mayor Frank K. Mott. Mr. Mott stated that there was absolutely no foundation to the report that Donovan is to be relieved in any way of the direct supervision of the building of the municipal auditorium, as he is considered the best man for the job.

The man to be selected by Donovan to assist him has not been announced, but the name of Walter J. Matthews has been mentioned in this connection.

Mayor Mott made the following formal statement in the matter this morning: "Statements that J. J. Donovan was to be removed as supervising architect are not well founded. There is no intention on the part of the city government to discharge Donovan; on the contrary he is to be retained in his position, which he has rendered to this city excellent service. "The general purpose of recent conferences which have been held as to the completion of the auditorium has been to devise a plan by which rapid construction of the building could be assured on a most economical basis. To that end it has been proposed that the services of another architect and a structural engineer be procured to assist in working out the details of a revised plan of construction.

SURPRISED AT WORK BURGLAR FLEES

Night Clerk Interrupts Man Battering Strong Box, Who Escapes.

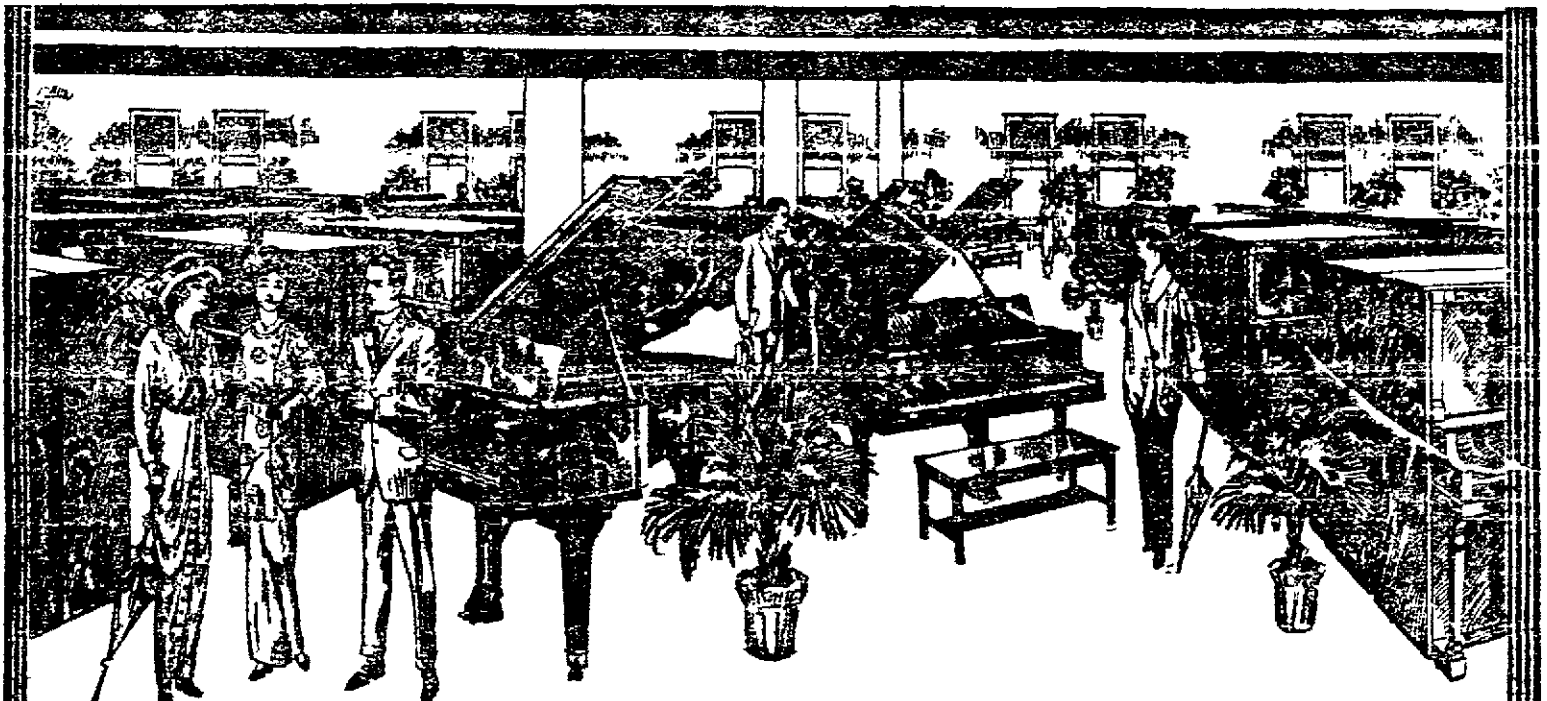

A daylight robbery of offices and safe of the Hotel Merritt, at Ninth and Franklin streets, was frustrated at 5 o'clock this morning by Frank McQuaide, night clerk at the place, who surprised a tall stranger at work battering down the door leading to the hotel's strong box. McQuaide made an unsuccessful attempt to capture the would-be thief, chasing him down the hotel steps and into the street, losing sight of him in an alleyway at the rear of the building.

JOAQUIN MILLER BUST ON EXHIBIT AT HOTEL

A heroic head of Joaquin Miller, late poet of the Sierras, today guards the entrance to the Hotel Oakland, the great plaster bust of the poet being one of the latest modeled before his death. The statue itself is guarded daily by House Detective Mason, who fears lest some piece of the bust be removed.
